

International David Foster Wallace Society
ALA 2017

The International David Foster Wallace Society is seeking papers for a sponsored, open-topic panel at the American Literature Association convention in Boston in May 2017. Established and emerging scholars alike are welcomed; we are especially interested in papers that approach under-discussed texts in Wallace's body of work or that propose new lines of critical inquiry in Wallace studies. Please send 300-word abstracts to Matthew Luter at matthewjluter@gmail.com by January 29. Indicate any audiovisual presentation needs.
