

CALL FOR PAPERS

The Seventh Biennial Conference of the RECEPTION STUDY SOCIETY
The Saint Paul Hotel and St. Catherine University
Sept. 21-23, Saint Paul, Minn.

Thursday through Sunday

The Reception Study Society promotes informal and formal exchanges between scholars in several related fields: reader-response criticism and pedagogy, reception history, history of reading and the book, audience and communication studies, institutional studies, and gender, race, ethnic, sexuality, postcolonial, religious, and other studies. We welcome presentations on all aspects of reception studies, but this year we especially encourage papers and panels on the theme: "Feminist Reception: Celebrating Thirty Years," which commemorates the women's march on Washington as well as the publication of books like Gender and Reading, the anthology by Beth Flynn and Patsy Schweikart, who will be speaking at the conference.

Proposals for panels and papers in any of these areas are now welcome. Please submit proposals of 250 words or less, along with a one-page cv to Daniel Morris at dmorris@purdue.edu by May 15, 2017. Contact Professor Morris at dmorris@purdue.edu with any questions or queries.

Plenary Speakers:

Paula Rabinowitz, University of Minnesota

"Scenes of Women Reading/Scenes of Reading Women: The paperback revolution and feminist consciousness"

Sumana Chattopadhyay, Marquette University

"Understanding Voters in a Mediated World: Authoritarianism, Trust, Cynicism and Political Interest in Election 2016"

Patsy Schweikart, Purdue University

"Rereading Rereading: Gender and Reading thirty years later"

Reduced rate rooms will be available from The Saint Paul Hotel, a 2016 Condé Nast Traveler: Readers' Choice Award "Top 10 Hotels in the Midwest."

Selected conference papers will be solicited for publication in the RSS journal, Reception: Texts, Readers, Audiences, History, published by Penn State University Press. For information about the
