

Ezra Pound Society – ALA 2018

The Ezra Pound Society seeks proposals for two panels for the 29th annual conference of the American Literature Association at the Hyatt Regency San Francisco on May 24-27, 2018.

The first panel will deal with the following topic: “Ezra Pound and his Palpable poetics of environment in The Cantos: The making Visible of Ideas.”

The second panel will address New Work on Ezra Pound’s Poetry and Prose, with an emphasis on pedagogical issues.

Please submit 250-word proposals no later than January 29, 2018 to Demetres P. Tryphonopoulos at Demetres@unb.ca. Please attach your abstract as a Word document and also paste the text into your e-mail message. Acceptances will be issued by February 15, 2018. For questions about the EPS panels, please contact Demetres P. Tryphonopoulos, Secretary of EPS.
