

American Literature Association

A Coalition of Societies Devoted to the Study of American Authors

29th Annual Conference on American Literature
San Francisco, CA

May 24-27, 2018

Conference Director
Leslie Petty
Rhodes College

This on-line draft of the program is designed to provide information to participants in our 29th conference and an opportunity to make corrections. Please send your corrections directly to the conference director at pettyL@rhodes.edu as soon as possible. Updates will be published on-line weekly until we go to press.

Please note that the printed program will be available at the conference. Opportunities to advertise in the printed program are available at a cost of $250 per camera ready page – further information may be obtained by contacting Professor Alfred Bendixen, the Executive Director of the ALA, at ab23@princeton.edu

Audio-Visual Equipment: The program also lists the audio-visual equipment that has been requested for each panel. The ALA normally provides a digital projector and screen to those who have requested it at the time the panel or paper is submitted. Individuals will need to provide their own laptops and those using Macs are advised to bring along the proper cable/adaptor to hook up with the projector. Please note that we no longer provide vcrs or overhead projectors or tape players and we cannot provide internet access.

Registration: Participants must pre-register for the conference by going to the website at

<http://americanliteratureassociation.org/ala-conferences/registration-and-conference-fees/>

and either completing on line-registration which allows you to pay with a credit card or completing the registration form and mailing it along with the appropriate check to the address indicated.

Please remember that all participants in the 29th Annual ALA Conference are required to pre-register in order to remain on the program. Those who have not pre-registered by April 15th will be informed that they will be dropped by May 1 if they do not pre-register. I regret that it will be necessary to strictly enforce this policy.

Please make your hotel reservations as soon as possible. You can do so by going to

<http://americanliteratureassociation.org/ala-conferences/housing-information/> and following the directions posted.

If something prevents you from presenting your paper, please notify the chair of your panel and the conference director as soon as possible.

Please note that our rules permit individuals to present only one formal paper at the annual conference. Individuals may present one paper and also serve on roundtables and chair sessions.

A few sections still need chairs and we welcome volunteers who should contact the conference director if they are interested in chairing a specific session.

Thank you for your support of the American Literature Association
Leslie Petty, 2018 Conference Director

Registration Desk (Pacific Concourse)

Wednesday, 8:00 pm – 10:00 pm;
Thursday, 8:00 am - 5:30 pm;
Friday, 7:30 am - 5:00 pm;
Saturday, 7:30 am - 3:00 pm;
Sunday, 8:00 am - 10:30 am.

Book Exhibits (Pacific L-M-N-O)

Thursday, 10 am – 5 pm;
Friday, 9 am – 5 pm;
Saturday, 9 am – 1:00 pm.

Featured Readings and Receptions

Thursday, May 24, 2018

Ishmael Reed

6:00 – 7:00 pm

Opening Reception

7:00- 8:00

Friday, May 25, 2018

African American Literature and Culture Society Reception Reading and Book Signing:

Friday May 25, 2018

7:15- 9:00 pm

Reading by giovanni singleton, recipient of the 2017 Stephen E. Henderson Award for Outstanding Achievement in Poetry

Presentation of the Darwin T. Turner Award to Michele Elam

A reception hosted by the African American Literature and Culture Society, the Charles W. Chesnutt Society, the Paul Laurence Dunbar Society, the Pauline Hopkins Society, the Toni Morrison Society, the Ralph Ellison Society, Octavia E. Butler Literary Society, and the John Edgar Wideman Society, and sponsored by the African American Literature and Culture Society and the American Literature Association will precede the reading.

giovanni singleton is the author of Ascension (2011), winner of the California Book Award Gold Medal for poetry, and AMERICAN LETTERS: works on paper (2017). Her poetry appears in many anthologies and is inscribed on the Yerba Buena Center for the Arts in San Francisco, CA. She has been a fellow at the Squaw Valley Community of Writers, Cave Canem, and the Napa Valley Writers Conference, as well as a recipient of the New Langton Bay Area Award. She is the coordinator for the Lunch Poems series at the University of California-Berkeley and founding editor of nocturnes (re)view of the literary arts. She has taught at Saint Mary's College, Naropa University and New Mexico State University.

Saturday, May 26, 2018

A Reading from LINCOLN IN THE BARDO (2017)

Dramatis Personae

Willie Lincoln Maxine Hong Kingston
Abraham Lincoln Jim Collins
Roger Bevins III David Johnson
Hans Vollman Earl Kingston
Rev. Everly Thomas Lisa Tateosian
Eddie Baron John Whalen-Bridge
Betsy Baron Patty Raun

In the opening pages of the novel, Willie Lincoln is dying of typhoid fever while his parents must host a large state dinner in the White House. After Willie dies, Abraham Lincoln attempts to grapple with his loss by visiting his dead son's crypt, opening the casket, and holding his beloved son's body. This act deeply affects several of the spirits inhabiting the charnel ground, but Willie is disturbed by the sight. Now a disembodied spirit, Willie looks down upon his father and his own unrecognized body, unaware that he is dead. Why does his father walk away, abandoning him?

Saunders has defined the bardo as "a transitional state between lives," but the concept can apply more widely to a number of liminal situations. According to some Tibetan Buddhist teachings, everyday life (the shinay bardo), the dreams that come between one day and the next (the milam bardo), and the bardo of meditative experience (the samten bardo) are all moments in which in which beings struggle for clarity, though these lesser-known bardos are thought to be less consequential than the purgatorial term between lives. A traveler stuck in an airport due to a missed flight is in a kind of bardo, a period of uncertainty. While the novel is centered on the travail of Willie Lincoln, the boy's spiritual journey is artfully linked to that of all the other characters in this novel, and perhaps to the whole of American life that is shaped by Abraham Lincoln's choices.

Like Willie, the President finds himself caught between possibilities. The elder Lincoln faces crises that are at once spiritual, psychological, and political. In late February 1862, just after Grant's capture of Fort Donelson, the Civil War was beginning to metastasize into a new kind of war—the catastrophe that would claim over 600,000 American lives. During the course of the novel, the ten worst battles were yet to happen. Saunders takes us into the agonized heart of Lincoln as he struggles with what he should do.

Readers (and hearers) of Lincoln in the Bardo may find the central organizing metaphor to be quite timely. In response to the political rallies of a more recent politician, Saunders in early 2016 wrote that he had "never before imagined America as fragile, as an experiment that could, within my very lifetime, fail." Spiritually engaged and unfailingly intelligent, Lincoln in the Bardo appreciates profoundly the fragility of our individual lives and of our communal way of life.

With the kind permission of the writer, The Postmortem Players have come together to perform a reading of Lincoln in the Bardo for the American Literature Association.

Thursday, May 24, 2018

Registration: 7:30 am - 5:30 pm

Book exhibit: 10 am- 5 pm

Thursday, May 24, 2018

9:00 – 10:20 am

Session 1-A Black Protest and the Literary Response

Organized by the African American Literature and Culture Society

Chair: Aldon Nielsen, The Pennsylvania State University

1. "‘This is the Time’: Umbra, On Guard for Freedom and the Death of Patrice Lumumba," David Grundy, University of Cambridge, UK.
2. "‘The Black Map’ (A book entirely unwritten)": Reframing Bronzeville from Within," Sophia Bamert, University of California, Davis.
3. "Gwendolyn Brooks and the Ghetto Girl," Malcolm Tariq, University of Michigan.
4. "The New Negro as Precursor to Black Lives Matter," Venetria K. Patton, Purdue University.

A/V: Yes

Session 1-B Howells and Democracy

Organized by the William Dean Howells Society

Chair: Daniel J. Mrozowski, Trinity College

1. "Democracy and Trust in the Oeuvre of William Dean Howells," Margit Peterfy, University of Heidelberg
2. "Utopian Visions, Realist Plans: William Dean Howells and the Birth of American Urban Planning," Michael Gastiger, Brown University
3. "Will and Wait: Urbanism, Democracy, Aesthetics," John Sampson, Johns Hopkins University

Audio-Visual Equipment required: Projector and Screen

Session 1-C Faulkner: In Short

Organized by the William Faulkner Society

Chair: Sarah Gleeson-White, University of Sydney

1. "Faulkner and the Story: Race, Crime, and the End of Modernism in ‘Go Down, Moses,’” Deborah Clarke, Arizona State University
2. "An Error in Copyediting: Removing the South from Faulkner’s Second-Prize Story in Ellery Queen’s Mystery Magazine," John N. Duvall, Purdue University
3. "‘Where Are Your Guts?’: Pride, Honor, and Inner Strength in William Faulkner’s ‘Honor,’” Dennis B. Ledden, Pennsylvania State University

Audio-visual equipment required: Projector and screen for PowerPoint/film clips

Session 1-D Future Earths I: Future Past and Future Present

Organized by the Association for the Study of Literature and Environment

Chair: Megan Simpson, Penn State Altoona

1. "Atomic Afrofuturism: The Cold War and Apocalyptic Ecologies," Kristin George Bagdanov, UC Davis
2. "Uncertainty Discourse in Climate Modeling and Barbara Kingsolver's Flight Behavior," Pamela Carralero, Purdue University
3. "'Poem of Our Time': The Spirituality and Futurity of Waste in A. R. Ammons's Garbage," Carly Rubin, Louisiana State University

Audio-Visual Equipment required: PowerPoint

Session 1-E Bodies in Poe and Hawthorne

Organized by the Poe Studies Association

Chair: Cristina Pérez, Universidad Complutense de Madrid and Harvard University

1. "Poisoned and Possessed: Neuroscience and the Animate Body in Hawthorne and Poe," Matthew Rebhorn, James Madison University
2. "Female Bodies and Male Fears in Poe and Hawthorne," Paul Emmett, University of Wisconsin-Manitowoc
3. "The Scarlet Letter, 'Berenice,' and Jacksonian Era Medical Debates," Jeffrey Yeager, West Virginia University

Audio-Visual Equipment required: projector and screen for PP presentations

Session 1-F Chicana/o/x Narrative Strategies: Voicing Historia in a (Post) Racial America

Organized by Latina/o/x Literature and Culture Society

Chair: Cristina Herrera, California State University, Fresno

1. "Between Fact and Fiction: Articulating Captiva Identity in the Fictionalized WPA Narratives from Lorraine Lopez's The Gifted Gabaldón Sisters," Patricia Trujillo, Northern New Mexico College
2. "Chicanas and Central Americanas: (Mis)Recognition and Disappearance in Helena María Viramontes' 'The Cariboo Café,'" Araceli Esparza, California State University, Long Beach
3. "Dystopian Images in Their Dogs Came with Them, and the Economic Realities of Postracial America," Edén Torres, University of Minnesota
4. "Shifting the Site of Chicana/o Enunciation?: Focalization in Manuel Muñoz's What You See in the Dark," Omar Figueredo, Independent Scholar

Audio-Visual Equipment required: Projector for Powerpoint/DVD presentations and Screen

Session 1-G Postwar Urban Poetry I: Riots and Rebels
Organized by the Postwar Area Literature Group

Chair: Nicole Dib, University of California, Santa Barbara

1. "The eagerness of objects to be what we are afraid to do': Anxiety and Affects in Frank O'Hara," Melih Levi, Stanford
2. "The Tesseract that Jack Built: Translational Poetics in Spicer's After Lorca," Nicholas Whittington, University of California, Santa Cruz
3. "'brujo explosions': Baraka's Poetic Riot in the Streets," Karen Lepri, New York University

Audiovisual Equipment Required: Projector, hook-ups (for PowerPoint)

Session 1-H Disappearing Women: A New Look at Recovery
Organized by the Constance Fenimore Woolson Society

Chair: Jane M. Fleming, University of Texas at Austin

1. "'Social Satire and Non-Human Empathy in Sigourney's 'Crushed Mouse,'" Sarah J. Schuster, University of Texas at Austin
2. "Deadly Inversions: Emotional Labor and Disappearance in Constance Fenimore Woolson's 'Miss Grief,'" Danielle Cofer, University of Rhode Island
3. "An American Exmatriate Literary Tradition?: Recovering the Missing Mothers of Gilded Age Expatriate Novels," Shonda N. Stevens, Florida State University

Audio-Visual Equipment required: None

Session 1-I Cultural Contexts

Chair: TBA

1. "Regrets for Mr. Roosevelt: Pauli Murray's Poems for FDR," Christina G. Bucher, Berry College
2. "American Nobels: From Sinclair Lewis to Bob Dylan," James D. Bloom, Muhlenberg College
3. "'Of Cowboy Blues and Criminal Mouths: Sam Shepard and the Death of Rock 'n' Roll,'" Kirk Curnutt, Troy University
4. "How Superhero Films Are our 21st-Century War Stories," Stacey Peebles, Centre College

Session 1-J Reassessing Leslie Fiedler
Organized by the American Literature Society

Chair: Karen Roggenkamp, Texas A&M-Commerce

1. "The Childhood of American Art: Fiedler, Billy Budd, and the American Classics," David Greven, University of South Carolina

2. "The Proud Badge of Shame: Leslie Fiedler's Literary Homonationalism," Ashley Barnes, University of Texas-Dallas
3. "Leslie Fiedler's Coming to Jerusalem," Ken Dauber, SUNY at Buffalo

Audio-Visual Equipment required: None

Thursday, May 24, 2018
10:30-11:50am

Session 2-A Don DeLillo and Paradox
Organized by the Don DeLillo Society

Chair: Jesse Kavadlo, Maryville University

1. "The Paradoxes of Don DeLillo's Terrorist Narratives," Gabriela-Alexandra Banica," University of Bucharest
2. "Don DeLillo and the Lure of Fundamentalism," Matt Kavanagh, Okanagan College
3. "Running Hot and Cold: Zero K and The Word for Snow," Jacqueline Zubeck, College of Mount Saint Vincent
4. "Composites in Don DeLillo," Michael Goebel, Albertus Magnus University of Cologne

Session 2-B Frank Norris
Organized by the Frank Norris Society

Chair: Eric Carl Link, Indiana University-Purdue University Fort Wayne

1. "Looking at 'Wheat' in the Blink of an Eye," Toby Widdicombe, University of Alaska Anchorage
2. "Design for Determinism: Norris, Nansen, and A Man's Woman," Patti Luedecke, Western University Ontario
3. "An Octopus of Data: Cyberspace and the Golden Spike," Zach Mann, University of Southern California

Audio Visual Equipment Required: PowerPoint Projector and Screen

Session 2-C "Note from the Real World" – Amiri Baraka I
Organized by the Amiri Baraka Society

Chair: Aldon Lynn Nielsen, The Pennsylvania State University

1. "27 Cooper Square: Amiri Baraka and Bohemia," William J. Harris, University of Kansas, emeritus
2. "The Empire Strikes Back: Baraka and Andrews in the age of Trump," Joseph Lease, California College of the Arts
3. "Boring Communists, Militant Integrationists, Professional Negroes, Wild Scenes: Baraka, the Cold War, and the Crisis of the Doctrine of the Hip," Geoffrey Jacques, California Institute of the Arts

Audio-Visual Equipment required: data projector with screen and sound

Session 2-D: Future Earths II: Speculative Ecologies

Organized by the Association for the Study of Literature and Environment

Chair: Ian Marshall, Penn State Altoona

1. "Ecological and Historical Succession in Earth Abides," Phillip Polefrone, Columbia University
2. "The ecological housekeeping is enormous': Joanna Russ's Pastoral Vision," Kimberly Quiogue Andrews, Washington College
3. "Sympathy with the Earth: Becoming World in Area X of the Southern Reach Trilogy," Suzanne McCullagh, Miami University of Ohio

Audio-Visual Equipment required: PowerPoint

Session 2-E Border Crossings and Revisions: Celebrating 100 Years of My Ántonia
Organized by The Willa Cather Foundation

Chair: John Swift, Occidental College

1. "Wild Flowers and Refuge in My Ántonia," Charmion Gustke, Belmont University
2. "Synthesizing Place, the Plains, and Cather: Perspectives on My Ántonia from the International Classroom," Aaron J Laduke, Northwestern University-Qatar
3. "That Singular Light': The Luminescent Underpinnings of My Ántonia," Aimee M. Allard, University of Nebraska-Lincoln

Audio-Visual Equipment Required: Projector and screen.

Session 2-F Untimely Regions: Arizona, New Mexico, Florida

Organizer and Moderator: Antonio López, English, George Washington University

1. "Time After Trinity: Cold War Mutations of Rhetoric and Rhythm," Cristopher Hollingsworth, English, University of South Alabama
2. "Memory in Contemporary Latino/a Poetry," Jessica Guzman, English, University of Southern Mississippi
3. "Late Wetlands and Settler Aesthetics," Antonio López, English, George Washington University
4. "Past/Future/Perfect: Cuban Writers and Temporal Form," Luis Iglesias, English, University of Southern Mississippi

AV Requirments: Computer, PowerPoint, Screen. [We do not provide computers.]

Session 2-G Postwar Urban Poetry II: Politicizing Performance Spaces
Organized by the Postwar Area Literature Group

Chair: Nicole Dib, University of California, Santa Barbara

1. "To them and to you, life': Diasporic Ethics of Charles Reznikoff's Urban Vision," Dalia Bolotnikov, University of California, Santa Barbara

2. "Daffy's down with jaundice: Identity in Urban Spaces in John Ashbery's 'Daffy Duck in Hollywood,'" Claire Genesy, University of California, Davis
3. "These Are the Breaks: The Poetics of Black Nostalgia," Felice Blake and Lexus Edison, University of California, Santa Barbara

Audiovisual Equipment Required: Projector, hook-ups (for PowerPoint) those using Macs may need to provide their own connecting cords and dongles

Session 2-H Disappearing Women: Changing the Conversation about Recovering Reconstruction
Organized by the Constance Fenimore Woolson Society

Chair: Jane E. Schultz, Indiana University-Purdue University Indianapolis

1. "Forgotten Stories, Unexpected Developments," Kathleen Diffley, University of Iowa
2. "Before Memory and Memorialization: Rebecca Harding Davis's Reconstruction," Sarah E. Gardner, Mercer University
3. "Reconstructing Sherwood Bonner's Like unto Like," Kathryn McKee, University of Mississippi
4. "Sarah B. Cooper: The Most Interesting Woman That You've Never Heard Of," David M. Owens, Valparaiso University

Audio-Visual Equipment required: LCD projector

Session 2-I Challenging Versions of Veteran Identity and Representation
Organized by Liam Corley, California State Polytechnic University, Pomona

Chair: Mariana Grohowski, Michigan Technological University

1. "The Textual Battle of San Juan Hill: Veteran Reputations, White Supremacy, and the 1908 Presidential Election," Kelsey Kiser, Southern Methodist University
2. "Wartime Transcendentalists: Emerson, Whitman, and the Formation of Veteran Identity in the Armed Services Editions of Literature," Roger Thompson, Stony Brook University
3. "Four Antebellum Female Veterans: Legacies and Divergences in Southworth, Brown, Brewer, and Sampson," Liam Corley, California State Polytechnic University, Pomona

Audio-Visual Equipment required: none

Session 2-J Beyond Harlem, Expanding the Renaissance

Organizer: Amber La Piana, Foothill College

Chair: Susan Tomlinson, University of Massachusetts Boston

1. "Soft and Lazy Syncopation": Art, Violence, and Capitalism in Hughes's The Ways of White Folks, Erin Mae Clark, Saint Mary's University of Minnesota

2. "Better Racial Understanding": Delilah L. Beasley, the Bay Area, and the Harlem Renaissance, Amber La Piana, Foothill College
3. "I'll make me a world": James Weldon Johnson's God's Trombones as Literary Collection, Joelle Moen, Brigham Young University-Idaho

Audio-Visual Equipment required: None

Session 2-K Arthur Miller and Eugene O'Neill: Dramatic Theory and the Business of Performance
Organized by the Arthur Miller Society

Chair: Beth Wynstra, Babson College

1. "Fate, Dignity, Love, and Tragedy: O'Neill, Miller, and Their Successors," David Palmer, Massachusetts Maritime Academy
2. "Performing Miller's After the Fall, Lincoln Center, 1964: An Interview with Salome Jens," Dan McGovern, The Eugene O'Neill Foundation, Tao House
3. "O'Neill and Miller in Repertory," Eric Fraisher Hayes, The Eugene O'Neill Foundation, Tao House

Audio-Visual Equipment required: None

Session 2-L Business Meeting: Available

Thursday, May 24, 2018
12:00 – 1:20 pm

Session 3-A Don DeLillo and Paradox II
Organized by the Don DeLillo Society

Chair: Jacqueline Zubeck, College of Mount Saint Vincent

1. "The Living and the Undead: DeLillo's Late Style," Mark Osteen, Loyola University
2. "Mapping Transcendence: Don DeLillo's Uncanny Spaces," Laura Barrett, SUNY/New Paltz
3. "The Monastery of Manhattan: DeLillo's Great Jones Street and the Postsecular City," Teddy Hamstra, University of Colorado-Boulder
4. "Don DeLillo and Endings and Beginnings," Jesse Kavadlo, Maryville University

Audio-Visual Equipment required: projector for computer and screen

Session 3-B Narrative Disruptions & Reconstructions in Southern Literature
Organized by the Society for the Study of Southern Literature

Chair: Bill Hardwig, University of Tennessee

1. "U.S. Southern Writers and Spanish America," Amanda Louise Johnson, Rice University
2. "Laura Krey, a Texas Agrarian: The Sewanee Review Essays," José E. Limón, University of Notre Dame
3. "Narrating Affect: The Grotesque and Cormac McCarthy's Suttree," Bill Hardwig, University of Tennessee

Audio-Visual Equipment Requirements: On-screen photo display; laptop connection

Session 3-C Interdisciplinary Currents in Faulkner Studies: A Roundtable
Organized by the William Faulkner Society

Moderator: Peter Lurie, University of Richmond

1. "The World the Reviewers Made," Sarah Gardner, Mercer University
2. "The Burning House: William Faulkner and the Southern Origins of Diversity," Anders Walker, Saint Louis University
3. "Faulkner and the Field of Law and Literature," Kathryn S. Koo, Saint Mary's College of California
4. "Sexology, Creation, and Procreation: Queering Pregnancy in If I Forget Thee, Jerusalem," Aimee Armande Wilson, University of Kansas
5. "Faulkner and Visual Culture Now: Recursion or Development?" Peter Lurie, University of Richmond

Audio-visual equipment required: Projector and screen for PowerPoint/film clips

Session 3-D Available

Session 3-E Queerness, Familia, and Gendered Identities in Chicana/o/x Literary and Cultural Production
Organized by Latina/o/x Literature and Culture Society

Chair: Marci R. McMahon, University of Texas Rio Grande Valley

1. "Forged Identity: Borderlands Subjectivity in Daniel Chacón's 'Godoy Lives,'" Jacob Wilkenfeld, Northwestern University
2. "Unraveling the Familia Fantasy in Ana Castillo's The Guardians and Give It To Me," Monica Montelongo Flores, California State University, Stanislaus
3. "Queering Vatos Locos: Sureños, Sexuality, and Hypermasculinity," Frank García, University of Illinois at Urbana Champaign
4. "CyberAztlán: Chicana Feminist Activism," Justine Hernandez, St. Edward's University

Audio-Visual Equipment required: Projector for Powerpoint/DVD presentations and Screen

Session 3-F Teaching Poe and the World
Organized by the Poe Studies Association

Chair: Emron Esplin, Brigham Young University

1. "Poe in Brazil: Machado de Assis and the Emulation of Poe as a Criticism against Baudelaire's Intermediation," Greicy Pinto Bellin, Centro Universitário Campos de Andrade (Brazil)
2. "Of Ravens and Romanticism: Edgar Allan Poe's Enduring Legacy in American Education and the Juvenile Appropriations of His Poetry and Prose," Jordan Costanza, University of North Carolina-Charlotte
3. "E. A. Poe, W. A. Schlegel, and Modern Literature: A Transnational/Comparative Approach to Teaching Poe," Stephen Rachman, Michigan State University

Audio-Visual Equipment required: projector and screen for PP presentations

Session 3-G Emerson and Literature

Organized by the Ralph Waldo Emerson Society

Chair: Michael C. Weisenberg, University of South Carolina

1. "Fleeing to Fables': Emerson in Children's Literature," Kristina West, University of Reading
2. "Emerson in Marilynne Robinson's Gilead," Susan Dunstan, New Mexico Tech
3. "Emerson, Longfellow and the Professionalization of the Arts." Philipp Loeffler, University of Heidelberg

Audio-Visual Equipment required: PowerPoint Projection

Session 3-H American Religious-Scientific Literature

Organized by: Christine Hedlin, University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign

Chair: Dawn Coleman, University of Tennessee

1. "Scientific Racism and Religion in Harriet Beecher Stowe's The Minister's Wooing," Christine Hedlin, University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign
2. "Phantom Limbs: Amputation and Religion in Silas Weir Mitchell's 'The Case of George Dedlow,'" Randall Fuller, Kansas University
3. "Frederick Douglass, Phrenology, and the 'Money Nerve' of Religion," Christina Zwarg, Haverford College
4. "Spiritualism, Free Love, and Consent in Elizabeth Oakes Smith's Bertha and Lily," Ashley Reed, Virginia Tech

Audio-Visual Equipment Needed: None

Session 3-I History, Truth, and Fiction in the Recent Work of John Edgar Wideman

Organized by John Edgar Wideman Society

Chair: Wilfred Samuels, University of Utah

1. "Truth and Fiction in Writing to Save a Life," Stephen Casmier, Saint Louis University
2. "History and Truth in Wideman's Recent Work," Keith Byerman
3. "Dwelling on the Dirtiness of Keeping Brothers," Rich Roberts, University of Utah
4. "Imaginative Truth in the Fiction of John Edgar Wideman," Raymond Janifer, Shippensburg State University

Audio-Visual Equipment Needed: None

Session 3-J Ellen Glasgow: Across the Canon
Organized by Mark A. Graves, Ellen Glasgow Society

Chair: Chad Rohman, Dominican University

1. "An Inward Turn: Mining the 'Living Pulse' of Loss in the Life and Works of Ellen Glasgow," Jana Rivers-Norton, Cochise College
2. "Art, Inspiration, Family: Conversations with Ellen Glasgow's Relatives," James L. Coby, University of Alabama in Huntsville
3. "Another Look at Glasgow's One Man in His Time," Mark A. Graves, Morehead State University

Audio-Visual Equipment required: None

Session 3-K Business Meeting: Postwar Area Literature Group

Session 3-L Business Meeting: Constance Fenimore Woolson Society

Thursday, May 24, 2018
1:30 – 2:50 pm

Session 4-A Reading Confederate Monuments I
Organized by the American Literature Society

Chair: Leland S. Person, University of Cincinnati

1. "Print Culture and the Enduring Legacy of Confederate War Monuments: Columbia, SC as a Case Study," Michael C. Weisenburg, University of South Carolina, Columbia
2. "Complicating Today's Myth about the 'Myth of the Lost Cause': Lamar's Dedication to a Statue of Calhoun, 1887," Brook Thomas, University of California, Irvine
3. "The Grayson County, Texas Courthouse Confederate Monument as Cultural Text and Context," Randi Tanglen, Austin College.

Audio-Visual Equipment required: Projector

Session 4-B Howells and the Politics of Subjectivity: Gender, Class, and Race
Organized by the William Dean Howells Society

Chair: Margaret Jay Jessee, University of Alabama at Birmingham

1. "I tried to see her as you do': Gendered Subjectivity and William Dean Howells's The Coast of Bohemia," Jennifer Leigh Moffitt, Florida Southern College
2. "Democracy and American Girls: Gender, Class, and 'Race' in William Dean Howells' International Novels," Naoko Sugiyama, Japan Women's University
3. "'The Instinct of Righteous Shame': Liberal Guilt in Annie Kilburn," Harry Wonham, University of Oregon

Audio-Visual Equipment required: Projector and Screen

Session 4-C "Four Cats on REPATRIATIONOLOGY" – Amiri Baraka II
Organized by the Amiri Baraka Society

Chair: Gregory Pierrot, University of Connecticut, Stamford

1. "'Allah Mean Everything'—Baraka's Syncretic Religion," Chris Stroffolino, Laney College
2. "Toward a Total Art: Some of Amiri Baraka's Sketches, Drawings, Paintings," Tyrone Williams, Xavier University
3. "How to Read Suicidal Fantasy: An Example in Amiri Baraka," Anna Vitale, New York University
4. "Whose Jar? Baraka, Stevens, and the Civilizing Vessel," Linda Norton, San Francisco State University

Audio-Visual Equipment required: data projector with screen and sound

Session 4-D Melville in the Anthropocene
Organized by the Melville Society and the Association for the Study of Literature and the Environment (ASLE)

Chair: Meredith Farmer, Wake Forest University

1. "Ethics, Islands, and the Anthropocene: Bartleby and the Politics of Measurement," Helena Feder, East Carolina University (ECU)
2. "Concentrating 'the snugness': Body, Relation and Being in a Melvillean Anthropocene," Ryan Heryford; California State University, East Bay
3. "'Has the crater but shifted?': Geology and Racial Violence in Melville's Battle Pieces," Carie Schneider, University of Arizona

Respondent: Meredith Farmer, Wake Forest University

Audio-Visual Equipment is needed

Session 4-E Evelyn Scott: Provocative Modernisms
Organized by the Evelyn Scott Society

Chair: Claudia Milstead, University of Northern Colorado

1. "Evelyn Scott's The Wave: Challenging the Patriarchal Pedestal Then and Now," Dawn Gartlehner, University of Vienna
2. "Birth, Fiesta, and Death: Evelyn Scott's Gaze Upon Brazilian Culture and Society," Maria Das Graças Salgado, Universidade Federal Rural do Rio de Janeiro
3. "Modernist and Feminist Contexts of Charlotte Wilder's Poetry," Caroline Maun, Wayne State University

Audio-Visual Equipment Required: Projector and PC/Windows laptop

Session 4-F The Frontier in American Literary Imagination
Organized by the James Fenimore Cooper Society

Chair: Luis A. Iglesias, University of Southern Mississippi

1. "Oak Openings and the Michigan Frontier in the Antebellum American Literary Imagination," Stephen Arch, Michigan State University
2. "Constructing the Frontier: Natty's Cabin as Lyrical Trope," Marissa Grunes, Harvard University
3. "Local and Global Knowledges in Cooper's Last of the Mohicans," Kacey Steward, University of Delaware
4. "Guide (Me) Dog: A New Frontier of Companionship in James Fenimore Cooper's The Prairie," Jericho Williams, Independent Scholar.

Audio-Visual Equipment required: Projector and Screen/Monitor

Session 4-G Emerson and Nineteenth Century Arts Movements
Organized by the Ralph Waldo Emerson Society

Chair: Roger Thompson, Stony Brook University

1. "Light is the first of painters': Ralph Waldo Emerson and the Luminism of John Frederick Kensett," Ann Beebe, University of Texas at Tyler
2. "A singularly dandified theory of manners': Emersonian Aesthetics amongst the Decadents" Tim Clarke, University of Ottawa
3. "Emersonianism West: Aesthetic Experience and Aesthetic ownership in Frank Norris's McTeague," Chacko T. Kuruvilla, University of California, Santa Cruz

Audio-Visual Equipment required: PowerPoint Projection

Session 4-H Resistance and Freedom in African American Literature

Chair: TBA

1. "Turning the Page: Melodrama in Turn-of-the-Century Black Fiction," Jonathan Daigle, University of Hartford
2. "No one could live on a street live this and stay decent': Ann Petry's The Street," M. Elizabeth Geddy, Georgia Southern University
3. "The Double of Double Consciousness: Charles Johnson's Du Boisian Auto Machia," Richard Hardack
4. "Gwendolyn Brooks and Alicia Garza: Activists in the Black Womanist Tradition," Dorothy Randall Tsuruta, San Francisco State University

Audio-Visual Equipment Required: None

Session 4-I Business Meeting: Poe Studies Association

Session 4-J Business Meeting: Gertrude Stein Society

Session 4-K Business Meeting: John Edgar Wideman Association

Session 4-L Business Meeting: William Faulkner Society

Thursday, May 24, 2018
3:00 – 4:20 pm

Session 5-A Reading Confederate Monuments II

Organized by the American Literature Society

Chair: Randi Tanglen, Austin College

1. "Those Who Are Doomed to Live: Using Absalom, Absalom! To Understand Protests of the Removal of Confederate Statues," Julianna Crame, University of Nevada, Las Vegas
2. "Redeeming White Women as Property in The Birth of a Nation," Maria Seger, University of Louisiana at Lafayette
3. "Frederick Douglass Monuments," Leland S. Person, University of Cincinnati

Audio-Visual Equipment required: Projector

Session 5-B Frank Norris's McTeague: New Perspectives

Organized by the Frank Norris Society

Chair: Steve Frye, California State University Bakersfield

1. "Bottled Lightning': McTeague and the Gospel of Relaxation," Jeffrey W. Miller, Gonzaga University
2. "Scales of Force and Power in Frank Norris and N. K. Jemisin," Chuck Robinson, University of Nevada Reno
3. "'Spit ut out': The Role of Dialect in Frank Norris's McTeague," Scott Shumaker, University of Nevada Reno

Audio Visual Equipment Required: PowerPoint Projector and Screen

Session 5-C The Literature of the Christian Left
Organized by the American Religion and Literature Society

Chair: Ray Horton, Murray State University

1. "Moral Mondays and the Limits of Progressive Christian Political Rhetoric," Sara Anderson, Independent Scholar
2. "Biblical Radicalism and Gender Politics in Marilynne Robinson's Housekeeping," Srirupa Chatterjee, Indian Institute of Technology Hyderabad
3. "Theodore Parker and the Spirit of Reform," Mark Gallagher, The University of California, Los Angeles
4. "What Has Pragmatism to Do with Religion?" Tae Sung, California Baptist University

Audio-Visual equipment required: Projector & connection for PowerPoint

Session 5-D Film and Literary Texts Panel
Organized by the Cinema Television Literature Association

Chair: Christine Danelski, California State University, Los Angeles

1. "Physical Challenge: Game Shows, State Power, and Death," Mike Miley, Loyola University New Orleans
2. "Destabilizing the Gaze: A. Van Jordan's The Cineaste and Cinematic Spectatorship," Steve Bellin-Oka, Eastern New Mexico University
3. "Nothing Can Be Changed Until It Is Faced: Aesthetics of Adaptation in I Am Not Your Negro," Erin Lee Mock, University of West Georgia
4. "'These violent delights have violent ends': Shakespeare and Westworld," Nicole Kenley, Simpson University

Equipment Required: Projector and Screen

Session 5-E "Something Unusual and Engaging": Freedom of Movement in My Ántonia
Organized by The Willa Cather Foundation

Chair: Charmion Gustke, Belmont University

1. "Silver Mines, Diamond Mines, and the 'Rich Mine of Life': Willa Cather's Productive Women," John Swift, Occidental College
2. "Acquiring Roots: Grafting as Belonging in My Ántonia," Jack Kerkering, Loyola University Chicago

3. "The Ideal Observer Meets the Ideal Consumer: Realism, Domestic Science, and Immigrant Cuisine in My Ántonia," Stephanie Tsank, University of Iowa

Audio-Visual Equipment Required: Projector and screen.

Session 5-F James Fenimore Cooper and the Winds of Change
Organized by the James Fenimore Cooper Society

Chair: Stephen Arch, Michigan State University

1. "Blood Purer and Richer": The Disruptive Presence of Cora in The Last of the Mohicans," Michelle Dostal, Oklahoma State University
2. "Cup and Saucer' Divorce: Cooper and Women's Rights," Barbara Alice Mann, University of Toledo, OH
3. "The Terror in Templeton: Natty Bumppo's Renegotiation of the Burke-Paine Debate," Ryan McWilliams, University of California, Berkeley
4. "Cooper and Democratic Elitism," Ma Yueling, Wuhan University, China

Audio-Visual Equipment required: Projector and Screen/Monitor

Session 5-G Special Event: Screening of the video documentary Paul Laurence Dunbar: Beyond the Mask (Frederick Lewis, director; 118 min., 2017), with Q&A by Producer and Executive Producer Joseph W. Slade, Emeritus Professor of Media Arts and Studies, Ohio University.

Sponsored by the Paul Laurence Dunbar Society and the African American Literature and Culture Society.

Session 5-H Ambulance Driver: Hemingway and the First World War
Organized by the Hemingway Society
Chair: Kirk Curnutt, Troy University

1. "Echoes of World War I Trauma in Winner Take Nothing," Paul Blom, University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill
2. "The Deserters: Hemingway and Dos Passos on World War I," Connie Chen, Wellesley College
3. "The Post-War, Wounded, Soldier Flâneur in the novels of Ernest Hemingway," Catherine R. Mintler, University of Oklahoma
4. "Ghosts of Solferino: Hemingway, Dos Passos, and Jean-Henri Dunant's Legacy on the Modern Battlefield," John D. Schwetman, University of Minnesota Duluth

Audio-Visual Equipment required: None

Session 5-I "As I Was Saying": How to Read Gertrude Stein's The Making of Americans: A Roundtable Discussion
Organized by the Gertrude Stein Society

Chair: Amy Moorman Robbins, Hunter College, CUNY

1. Cecilia Konchar Farr, St. Catherine University
2. Janie Sisson, St. Catherine University

3. Emma Hargreaves, St. Catherine University
4. Varghese John, UC College, Mahatma Gandhi University, India

Audio-Visual Equipment required: None

Session 5-J Business Meeting: William Dean Howells Society

Session 5-L Business Meeting: Phillip Roth Society

Session 5-M: Business Meeting: Amiri Baraka Society

Thursday, May 24, 2018
4:30 – 5:50 pm

Session 6-A Contemporary Experiments

Chair: Regina Yoong, Ohio University

1. "Cathy Park Hong's Dance Dance Revolution: Literary Epic and War's Unvoiced Stories," Andrea Quaid, Bard College
2. "Storm Over Atlanta: Tom Wolfe's A Man in Full and the Critics," Frank G. Novak, Jr., Pepperdine University
3. "'Resilience from the Garden: Charles Goodrich's Going to Seed," Josh A. Weinstein, Virginia Wesleyan University
4. "The Art of Longing: The Representation of Desire in Andre' Aciman's Call Me by Your Name," Margaret E. Johnson, Idaho State University

Audio-Visual Equipment required: DVD player or computer with projector –We will provide projector – participant will need to provide laptop to show dvd.

Session 6-B Literary Naturalism and Social Protest: A Roundtable Discussion
Organized by the Frank Norris Society

Moderator: Eric Carl Link, Indiana University-Purdue University Fort Wayne

Panelists:

Donna Campbell, Washington State University
Anita Duneer, Rhode Island College
Steve Frye, California State University Bakersfield

Lauren Navarro, LaGuardia Community College
Keith Newlin, University of North Carolina Wilmington
Jeanne Reesman, University of Texas San Antonio
Adam Wood, Salisbury University

Audio-Visual Equipment Required: Projector and Screen

Session 6-C Civil War, Reconstruction, Legacy
Organized by the Civil War Caucus

Chair: Kathleen Diffley, University of Iowa

1. "Lyrical Weapons of War: The Poet's Corner in Civil War Soldier Papers," James Berkey, Penn State Brandywine
2. "Love at the Bedside: Hospitalized Soldiers, Caregivers, and Bodily Claims," Jane E. Schultz, Indiana University-Purdue University Indianapolis
3. "One Hundred Days Count: Civil Rights and the 1870 Census," Judy Giesberg, Villanova University
4. "An Illustrative Sample of Sales of William Still's The Underground Railroad," Alex Black, Hobart and William Smith Colleges
5. "'Copies of Carnage': Reevaluating Civil War Photography," Ian Finseth, University of North Texas

Audio-Visual Equipment required: LCD projector

Session 6-D Gothicism, Queer Futures, & The Maternal: Reconsidering Shirley Jackson's The Haunting of Hill House
Organized by the Shirley Jackson Society

Chair: Jill E. Anderson, Tennessee State University

1. "Shirley Jackson and the Potential Queer Future," Emily Banks, Emory University
2. "Shirley Jackson's Domestic Architecture and the Matrophobic Gothic," Luke Reid, Université de Montréal
3. "Breaking the Girl: Eleanor Vance and the Feminist Nightmare of The Haunting of Hill House," Kathryn Rinehart, North Dakota State University
4. "The Feminist Supernatural: Shirley Jackson's Genreflexive Fiction," Alex Oxner, Vanderbilt University

Audio-Visual Equipment required: screen & laptop connections

Session 6-E "A Shake Down": Posthumous Engagements with Henry James Organized by the Henry James Society

Chair: Oliver Herford, University of Birmingham

1. "A Piece of String": Rebecca West on Henry James", Hazel Hutchison, University of Aberdeen

2. "Pound Reading James: The Brunnenberg Volumes", Simone Francescato, Ca' Foscari University of Venice
3. "Hardened Bachelors: Henry James and Queer Filiation in Edwardian London", Michael Anesko, Pennsylvania State University

Audio-visual equipment requested: projector and screen for PowerPoint presentations

Session 6-F Philip Roth and Sports
Organized by The Philip Roth Society

Chair: Andy Connolly, Hostos Community College of CUNY

1. "Countering the Punch or Punching Counters? The Aesthetic and Erotic Significances of Roth's Sporting Metaphor in The Human Stain," Andy Connolly, Hostos Community College of CUNY
2. "Roth in the Water: Swimming as Sport and Recreation," Ira Nadel, University of British Columbia
3. "Masculinity and Moral Athleticism" Carina Staudte, Independent Scholar

Audio-Visual Equipment required: data projector/screen (to show images from a laptop)

Session 6-G Continued: Special Event: Screening of the video documentary Paul Laurence Dunbar: Beyond the Mask (Frederick Lewis, director; 118 min., 2017), with Q&A by Producer and Executive Producer Joseph W. Slade, Emeritus Professor of Media Arts and Studies, Ohio University.

Sponsored by the Paul Laurence Dunbar Society and the African American Literature and Culture Society.

Session 6-H Literature and the Christian Right
Organized by the American Religion and Literature Society

Chair: Christopher Douglas, The University of Victoria

1. "Weak Become Strong: Postsecular Formations and Strong Religion," Caleb Spencer, Azusa Pacific University
2. "Is there Critique in Gilead? Suspicion and the Formation of Believing Subject in The Handmaid's Tale and Lila," Ray Horton, Murray State University
3. "Unsafe Fantasy: Faith and the Fantastic in Evangelical Fiction," Ken Paradis, Wilfrid Laurier University
4. "An American Odd Couple: the Worlds between Rand and the Christian Right," Jennifer A. Van Houdt, University of Washington

Audio-Visual equipment required: None

Session 6-I Mountains and Valleys of the South
Organized by the Society for the Study of Southern Literature

Chair: Erica Abrams Locklear, University of North Carolina Asheville

1. "You Are What you Eat: Appalachian Food in Local Color and Travel Writing," Erica Abrams Locklear, University of North Carolina Asheville
2. "The Old Chord Slashed in Two: Madison Jones's A Buried Land and the Anthropocentrism of the Tennessee Valley Authority," Lucas J. Sheaffer, Temple University
3. "like trying to live in a graveyard': Uninhabitable Environments, Fatalism, and the Post-Apocalyptic Vision of the Poor in Ron Rash's Serena," Randi Adams, Western Carolina University

Audio-Visual Equipment required: No

Session 6-J New Readings of Old Stories

Organized by the Society for the Study of the American Short Story

Chair: James Nagel, University of Georgia

1. "A New Reading of Nathaniel Hawthorne's 'The Birthmark'," Gudrun M. Grabher, University of Innsbruck (Austria)
2. "A New Perspective on the Anticlimactic and Abortive Events in Sherwood Anderson's 'Adventure'," James W. Thomas, Pepperdine University
3. "Folk Traditions and Motifs in Joel Chandler Harris's 'Where's Duncan'," Lisa Abney, Northwestern State University of Louisiana

Audio-Visual Equipment required: None

Session 6-K Open Session on Ernest Hemingway

Sponsored by the Hemingway Society

Only abstracts will be read so that there will be adequate time for discussion by the panelists and the audience.

Chair: Peter Hays, University of California, Davis

1. "Hemingway: Paris and Wine: A Love Story and an Inventory," Steve Paul, Independent Scholar and biographer
2. "Hemingway and the Wounds of Love: Romance and Masculinity in the Early Fiction," Dennis B. Ledden, Pennsylvania State University
3. "'Out of Season' and the Fisher King," Michael Montgomery, University of California, Davis.
4. "How Do You Know Anything: Hemingway's Epistemology," Mark Cirino, University of Evansville
5. "Extreme Encounters in Hemingway: Phenomenology and Existential Understanding of the Meaning of Life," Sadie Mc Cloud, Wheaton College
6. "The Signifying Hand: Decoding the 'Soul Language' of Hemingway's Blood Chase," Stephen Brown, University of Nevada Las Vegas

Audio-Visual equipment, none.

Session 6-L Business Meeting: Cinema Television Literature Society

Session 6-M Business Meeting: James Fenimore Cooper Society

Thursday, May 24, 2018
Featured Reading

Ishmael Reed

Audio-Visual Equipment required: Microphone and Podium and a/v

6:00 – 7:00 pm

Opening Reception
7:00- 8:00

Friday, May 25, 2018

Registration: 7:30 am - 5:30 pm
Book Exhibits open 9:00 am – 5:00 pm

Friday, May 25, 2018
8:10 – 9:30 am

Session 7-A New Looks on Nella Larsen

Organized by the African American Literature and Culture Society

Chair: Belinda Waller-Peterson, Moravian University

1. "Protesting Subjectivity, Embracing Queer Flesh: Self-Abnegation in Nella Larsen's Passing," Alvin Henry, Berkeley University.
2. "Nella Larsen Takes Her Stand: The Ecology of Protest in Quicksand," Rachel Carr, University of Kentucky.
3. "A Hand on Clare's Bare Arm: Trans-ing Queerness in Nella Larsen's Passing," Anna Ziering, University of Connecticut.

A/V: Yes

Session 7-B American Jokes: Laughter at the Margins of Respectability
Organized by the American Humor Studies Association

Chair: Jeffrey Melton, University of Alabama

1. "Blonde Jokes: Anita Loos' Gentlemen Prefer Blondes and Dorothy Parker's 'Big Blonde,'" Madison Priest, The Graduate Center, CUNY
2. "My Best Friend is Gay...': Rhetorical Strategies for Making Bigotry Laughable," Rebecca Krefting, Skidmore College
3. "MADness, Mishugas, Manhattan: That Other New York(er) Humor," Judith Yaross Lee, Ohio University
4. "Satire and the Problem of Comic Laughter," James E. Caron, University of Hawai'i at Manoa

Audio-Visual Equipment Required: projector/screen

Session 7-C Race, Religion, and Post-secularism in American Literature
Organized by the American Religion and Literature Society

Chair: Kathryn Ludwig, Ball State University

1. "Questions of Faith: Reading the Productive Space of Religious Doubt in Helena Maria Viramontes' The Dogs Came with Them," Susan Edmunds, Syracuse University
2. "Slaves Writing Post-Secular: 'The Problem of Evil' and Haunting (Un)Belief in Hannah Craft's The Bondwoman's Narrative," Ryan David Furlong, The University of Iowa
3. "From Wars to Walls: Hemispheric Politics and the Whiteness of American Secularism in Jackson's Ramona," AnaMaria Seglie, St. Norbert College
4. "A Secularity for Black Souls: DuBois and the Racial Politics of the Buffered Self," Thomas Sorensen, The University of Western Ontario

Audio-Visual equipment required: Projector & connection for PowerPoint

Session 7-D Beat Roots: Kerouac, Kaufman, diPrima, and Self-Identification
Organized by the Beat Studies Association

Chair: Tod Hoffman, Augusta University

1. "'Bum' as Societal Model: Kerouac's Ecology of Internal Restructuring in The Dharma Bums," Allison Douglass, Graduate Center, CUNY
2. "French Genealogies: Self and Existentialism in Bob Kaufman's Poetry," Mamadou Samb, University of Massachusetts-Lowell
3. "What Place Nostalgia? Diane diPrima's Italian-American Legacy," Rosemarie Giannini Quinn, De Anza College

Audiovisual equipment required: Powerpoint projector/hookup

Session 7-E Hidden Archives: Recovering Black, Latino, Multilingual, and Immigrant Literary Heritages,
Organized by The Research Society of American Periodicals and The Western Literature Association

Chair: Montse Feu, Sam Houston State University

1. "The 1930s Writings of Jorge Ainslie in La Prensa de San Antonio, Texas," José F. Aranda, Rice University.
2. "Emotional Communities in Many Languages. Anarchist Literature in American Periodicals at the Turn of the Twentieth Century," Susana Sueiro Seoane, Universidad de Educación a Distancia, Spain.
3. "Green Mountain Anarchists and the Founding of the Cronaca Sovversiva: Building a Social History of Immigrant Propagandists and Radical Community Organizers," Andrew Hoyt, University of Minnesota, Twin Cities.

Audio-Visual Equipment required: projector and screen

Session 7-F New Work on Eudora Welty
Organized By The Eudora Welty Society

Chair: Harriet Pollack, College of Charleston

1. "‘You Can’t Win’: Welty, Faulkner, and The Moral Tightrope of Dark Humor," Adrienne Akins Warfield, Mars Hill University
2. "Convergence and Confluence: Postwar Southern Identity in Eudora Welty's The Optimist's Daughter," Sarah Harsh, Emory University
3. "Eudora Welty's 'The Penalties of Writing Delta Wedding,'" Sophia Kane Leonard, Emory University
4. "Eudora Welty's Ecological Vision," Annette Trefzer, University of Mississippi

AV request: projector

Session 7-G There's a Shakespeare in Harlem: Reassessing the Politics and Aesthetics of Langston Hughes

organized by the Langston Hughes Society

Chair: Christopher Allen Varlack, University of Maryland-Baltimore County

1. "The Transnational Social Space in Langston Hughes's 'Cubes,'" Luo Lianggong, Central China Normal University
2. "Whitewashing a Black Socialist Masterpiece: The Liberal Appropriation of Langston Hughes' 'Let America be America Again,'" James D. Hoff, Borough of Manhattan Community College, CUNY
3. "Open Letter to America: The Lyrical Speaking Voice as Prophetic Protest in Hughes' 'Open Letter to the South' and 'Let American Be America Again,'" Paula Hayes, University of Memphis
4. "Poetry as Public Lament: The Prophetic Imagination of Langston Hughes," Jeffrey R. Williams, University of Central Missouri

Audio-Visual Equipment Required: Projector

Session 7-H Authority and Authorship in American Women's Manuscript Writing

Chair: Tracey Daniels-Lerberg, University of Utah

1. "Good wives to snails should be akin': Gender Roles and Political Community in Black Women's Friendship Albums," Faith Barrett, Duquesne University
2. "Recorded Care: Hospital Diaries of Civil War Nurses and Caregivers," Marla Anzalone, Duquesne University
3. "Modulated Voice and Mediated History in the Reservation Diaries of Abby Williams Hill," Tiffany Aldrich MacBain, University of Puget Sound
4. "Gone Girls, Found Manuscripts: Diary and Epistolary Fiction in the Digital Age," Desirée Henderson, University of Texas Arlington

A/V: yes

Session 7-I Ezra Pound and his Palpable Poetics of Environment in The Cantos: The Making Visible of Ideas

Organized by the Ezra Pound Society

Chair: Demetres Tryphonopoulos, Brandon University

Co-chair: LeeAnn Derdeyn, Southern Methodist University

1. "The Corruption of Literary Culture: Cantos 14 & 15," Robert von Hallberg, English Department, Claremont McKenna College
2. "Geopolitics, Ecopoetics, and Agrarianism in Pound's Adams Cantos," LeeAnn Derdeyn, Discernment & Discourse, English, Southern Methodist University
3. "City Pound: Urbanism & The Poetry of Ezra Pound," Ira Nadel, Dept. of English, University of British Columbia

Audio-Visual Equipment required: None

Session 7-J New Directions in Agee Studies

Organized by the James Agee Society

Chair: Hugh Davis, Piedmont College

1. "That Horrid Little Man!': Cinematic Identification in A Death in the Family," Philip Derbesy, Case Western Reserve University
2. "James Agee and the Southern Superreal," Lindsey A. Freeman, Simon Fraser University
3. "'Else (Take Heed) the Sweet Flesh Slips': Polysexual Self-Fashioning in Agee's Letters," Hugh Davis, Piedmont College

Audio-Visual Equipment required: None

Session 7-K Vonnegut and Trump's America

Organized by the Kurt Vonnegut Society

Chair: Nicole Lowman, State University of New York at Buffalo

1. "The Conundrum of the American Dream: A Study of God Bless You, Mr. Rosewater", Tajinder Singh, Independent Scholar

2. "Kurt Vonnegut's Apocalyptic Masculinities," Sanna Melin Schyllert, Independent Scholar
3. "Only Winners and Losers: Vonnegut's Political Anthropology in Trump's Dystopia," Francis X. Altomare, University of Miami
4. "Machines and the Loss of Moral Agency: Why Trump's America Should Frighten Everyone," Richard Coronado, South Texas College

Audio-Visual Equipment required: None

Session 7-L Business Meeting: Available

Session 7-M Business Meeting: Available

Friday, May 25, 2018
9:40 – 11:00 am

Session 8-A Reading and Translating Cummings
Organized by the E. E. Cummings Society

Chair: Bernard F. Stehle, Community College of Philadelphia

1. "Wholly How: Revisiting 'anyone lived in a pretty how town'," Michael Webster, Grand Valley State University
2. "Panphony in Translating E. E. Cummings's Erotic Poems into Brazilian Portuguese," Eclair Antonio Almeida Filho, University of Brasilia
3. "A Reading in Temporal Poetics: E. E Cummings' Fairy Tales," Richard Cureton, University of Michigan

Audio-Visual Equipment required: Projector for laptop.

Session 8-B The Return to Asia in Asian American Literatures
Organized by The Circle for Asian American Literary Studies (CAALS)

Chair: Na-Rae Kim, Kennesaw State University

1. "Asian Pride Porn': Neoliberal Multiculturalism and the Narrative of Asian American Racial Uplift in Kevin Kwan's Crazy Rich Asians Trilogy," Yuan Ding, University of Minnesota-Twin Cities
2. "Transpacific Resonances and Modalities of Relation in Leanne Dunic's To Love the Coming End," Michelle Siobhan O'Brien, Central Washington University
3. "The Congressman from India Goes East," Swati Rana, University of California, Santa Barbara
4. "From a Distance: The Vicarious Witness in Luisa A. Igloria's Poetry on EJKs," Louyza Maria Victoria Vasquez, University of the Philippines, Diliman

Audio-Visual Equipment required: projector with Mac hookup

Session 8-C Bodies of Resistance: Race, Identity, and Representation
Organized by The Edwidge Danticat Society

Chair: Shylah Hamilton, California College of the Arts

1. The Price of Being 'Good': The Black Female Body and The Stigma of Sexual Freedom in Danticat's Breath, Eyes, Memory, Wandeka Gayle, University of Louisiana at Lafayette
2. Museum Hue: A Movement for Racial Justice Through the Arts, Stephanie Johnson-Cunningham, Co-Founder of Museum Hue
3. In Memoriam: Border of Lights and Digital Testimony, Megan Feifer, Louisiana State University

Audio-Visual Equipment Required: Projector (Microphone requested but cannot be required and room should not need it)

Session 8-D Adaptations
Organized by the Nathaniel Hawthorne Society

Chair: Leland S. Person, University of Cincinnati

1. "The Mirrored Muse: A Playwright's Perspective on Creating a Hawthorne for the Stage." Diane Baia Hale, Independent Playwright and Scholar
2. "New Propagations and Plantings: Beneath Jhumpa Lahiri's Unaccustomed Earth," Caroline Chamberlin Hellman, City Tech, CUNY
3. "PBS's 'Rapaccini's Daughter': Translating Provincialism in Hawthorne's Work," James Hussey, Trinity College Dublin

Audio-Visual Equipment required: LCD projector with connection to laptop

Session 8-E Business Meeting: Research Society of American Periodicals

Audio-Visual Equipment required: yes

Session 8-F Can Independent Publishers Save Black Literatureendent Publishing?: A Round Table with The Ishmael Reed Publishing Company

Organized by Melanie Masterton Sherazi

Chair: Melanie Masterton Sherazi, California Institute of Technology

1. Ishmael Reed, author and publisher
2. Carla Blank, editor
3. Tennessee Reed, poet and editor
4. Melanie Masterton Sherazi, postdoctoral instructor and editor of King Comus

Audio-Visual Equipment Required: Yes

Session 8-G “Hold[ing] Fast to Dreams”: Tracing the Literary Legacy of Langston Hughes

organized by the Langston Hughes Society

Chair: Jeffrey R. Williams, University of Central Missouri

1. “The Dream Keeper: How Langston Hughes Fostered and Inspired the Next Black Cultural Bearers,” Shima Jalal Kamali, Sussex University, UK
2. “Langston Hughes’s Literary Legacy: The Case of Haryette Mullen’s Muse & Drudge,” Scarlett Higgins, University of New Mexico
3. “‘Regardless of the Brutality that Still Chases Us’: The ‘Radical Libretto[s]’ of Nikky Finney and Langston Hughes,” Christopher Allen Varlack, University of Maryland-Baltimore County

Audio-Visual Equipment Required: Projector

Session 8-H Edith Wharton, Book History, and Digital Humanities

Organized by the Edith Wharton Society

Chair: Paul Ohler, Kwantlen Polytechnic University

1. “Transatlantic Publication and Wharton’s Aesthetic of Revision,” Paul Ohler, Kwantlen Polytechnic University
2. “Complete Works of Edith Wharton: The Digital Wharton Project,” Donna Campbell, Washington State University
3. “Complete Works of Edith Wharton in Print and Online,” Carol Singley, Rutgers University
4. “Reading the Reader: Edith Wharton’s Library and Networks of Exchange,” Sheila Liming, University of North Dakota

Audio-Visual Equipment required: Projector

Session 8-I Mark Twain, Politics, and Satire

Organized by the Mark Twain Circle of America

Chair: Hal Bush, St. Louis University

1. “The Americanization of Jeanne D’Arc; Mark Twain and Cultural Hegemony,” Paula Harrington, Colby College
2. “‘The People Must Wait’: Populism, Democracy, and A Connecticut Yankee,” Andrew Alquesta, Tufts University
3. “Mark Twain’s Legal Burlesques and the Democratization of American Legalese,” Mark Baggett, Samford University
4. “Absolute Monarchs in America: Mark Twain, Brigham Young, and the Burden of the ‘Peculiar Institution,’” Atsushi Sugimura, The University of Tokyo/ University of California, Berkeley

Audio-Visual Equipment required: none

Session 8-J Parlaying Humanities Skills into Academic Leadership and/or non-Academic Careers:
Roundtable Discussion

Organizer and Chair: Deborah Clarke, Arizona State University

1. Alfred Bendixen, Princeton University
2. John Cox, NEH
3. Olivia Carr Edenfield Georgia Southern University
4. Eric Carl Link, Indiana University-Purdue University Fort Wayne
5. Wendy Martin, Claremont Graduate University
6. Shannon Lujan, Arizona State University

Audio-Visual Equipment required: None

Session 8-K Gender and Sexuality in the Work of Charles W. Chesnutt
Organized by the Charles W. Chesnutt Association

Chair: Trinyan Mariano, Florida State University

1. "A House of Her Own: The Redemptive Power of the Unmarried Woman's Property Rights in Chesnutt's The House Behind the Cedars," Valerie Sirenko, The University of Texas at Austin
2. "Elderly Black Women and the Memory of Slavery in the Work of Charles Chesnutt," Christopher S. Lewis, Western Kentucky University
3. "'Be as near a man as you can': Queer Performances of Humanity in The Marrow of Tradition," Aaron J. Stone, University of Michigan

Audio-Visual Equipment required: none

Session 8-L Business Meeting: Business Meeting: Kurt Vonnegut Society

Session 8-M Business Meeting: American Religion and Literature Society

Session 8-N Business Meeting: Available

Friday, May 25, 2018
11:10 am – 12:30 pm

Session 9-A Black Women Writing Protest
Organized by the African American Literature and Culture Society

Chair: Rachel Carr, University of Kentucky

1. "Bridge Brought Back: The Activist Afterlife of Kate Rushin's 'Bridge Poem'," Lizzy LeRud, University of Oregon.
2. "Celebrations of Music and Collective Action in Septima Clark's Echo in My Soul," Genevieve Hay, Tufts University.
3. "The Sisterhood and Black Women's Literary Organizing," Courtney Thorsson, University of Oregon.
4. "Reframing the 'Scripted' Vulnerability of Whiteness as Violence: The Praxis of the Wake in Victoria C. Murray's Stand Your Ground," Lâle Demirtürk, Bilkent University, Turkey.

A/V: Yes

Session 9-B Asian American Literature and Visual Texts
Organized by The Circle for Asian American Literary Studies (CAALS)

Chair: Laura Wright, University of Connecticut

1. "Paper Cranes in the Sky: Investigating Immigration Stories Through Shaun Tan's The Arrival," Christiana Ares-Christian, University of Connecticut
2. "The Textual Remediation of the Visual in Karen Tei Yamashita's I Hotel: Toward an Ethic of Representing a Collective Asian American History," Kai Hang Cheang, University of California, Riverside
3. "Asian American Comics and Thinking Historically," Caroline Kyungah Hong, Queens College, City University of New York
4. "The Writings of Martin Wong (1946-1999)," Amy Lee, University of California, Berkeley

Audio-Visual Equipment required: projector

Session 9-C New Directions in Stephen Crane Scholarship
Organized by the Stephen Crane Society

Chair: Adam H. Wood, Salisbury University

1. "'Deep History' in Crane's Poetry," Donald Vanouse, Emeritus, SUNY Oswego
2. "Humoring Affectation in Stephen Crane's The Black Riders and War Is Kind," Andrew Dorkin, University at Buffalo, SUNY
3. "The Peter Newell/Stephen Crane Collaboration in the Tales of Whilomville," Patrick K. Dooley, St. Bonaventure University

Audio-Visual Equipment required: projector for powerpoint and dvd presentation and screen

Session 9-D Hawthorne's Anticipations of Twenty-First Century Psychopathologies
Organized by the Nathaniel Hawthorne Society

Chair: Julie E. Hall, Sam Houston State University

1. "'Of the Devil's party': Hawthorne's Fascination with Sexual Pathology," Jason Courtmanche, University of Connecticut
2. "Farewell to the Sodomasochistic Symbiosis: The Scarlet Letter," Eitetsu Sasaki, Momoyama Gakuin University, Japan

3. "The Scarlet Letter, Pregnancy, and Disability Anxiety: Tracing a Genealogy of Ableism and Reproduction," Karen Weingarten. Queens College, CUNY

Audio-Visual Equipment required: LCD projector with connection for laptops

Session 9-E: Editorship as Collaboration: Patterns of Practice in Multi-Ethnic Periodicals, Organized by The Research Society of American Periodicals

Chair: Florian Freitag, Johannes Gutenberg University Mainz

1. "Crossing Borders: Reader-Editors and Publishing Communities," Jon Bekken, Albright College.
2. "Zeitschrift für Anglistik und Amerikanistik: Role and Function of an Academic Journal in a Socialist Society," Michael Lörch, Johannes Gutenberg University Mainz.
3. "Racial Romances: Sexual Politics in African American Newspaper Fiction," Brooks Hefner, James Madison University.

Audio-Visual Equipment required: projector and screen

Session 9-F Getting Funded in the Humanities: An Grant-Writing Workshop Organized by the National Endowment for the Humanities

Chair: John D. Cox, NEH

Audio-Visual Equipment required: Computer projector for PowerPoint, if possible

Session 9-G Jack London on the High and Horrible Seas: Empire, Film, and the Gothic
Organized by the Jack London Society

Chair: Kenneth K. Brandt, Savannah College of Art and Design

1. Jack London's Imperial and Maritime Gothic, Anita Duneer, Rhode Island College
2. The Trader in Jack London's "Mauki," Keith Newlin, University of North Carolina Wilmington
3. Spectacles of Empire, Empire of Spectacle: Jack London in the South Seas, Paul Baggett South Dakota State University

AV: Yes, PowerPoint

Session 9-H Women's Voices

Chair: TBA

1. "Nothing but calico': Working Women, the Lowell Offering, and Transatlantic Labor Reform," Amber Shaw, Coe College
2. "Mi'ja' is 'I Love You': Language & the Sacred in Sandra Cisneros' A House of My Own," Christina Garcia Lopez, University of San Francisco
3. "Unhomely Oklahoma and Toni Morrison's Paradise," Jessica Maucione, Gonzaga University

4. "Literary Vandals': American Women's Prison Zines and Collective Autobiography," Olivia Wright, University of Nottingham, UK

Audio-Visual Equipment required: Will need to project images on screen from laptop; also need Powerpoint

Session 9-I Teaching/Reading Raymond Carver Post-Obama
Organized by The International Raymond Carver Society

Chair: Member of The International Raymond Carver Society SOCIETY MUST PROVIDE CHAIR ASAP

1. "Reading Raymond Carver in Translation in the Post-Obama World," Jagannathan Govindan, Independent Scholar
2. "Carver in the Age of Trump: Whose voice is powerless?" Angela Sorby, Marquette University
3. "Teaching Raymond Carver Post-Obama: 'This is a very special time,'" Sandra Kleppe, Inland Norway University of Applied Sciences

Audio-Visual Equipment required: None

Session 9-J Roundtable: Responses to Michelle Sizemore's American Enchantment
Organized by the Catharine Maria Sedgwick Society

Moderator: Lisa West, Drake University

1. "American Enchantment, the People, and Popular Sovereignty," Dana D. Nelson, Vanderbilt University.
 2. "Revolutionary Invocation and the Temporalities of Civil Mysticism," Gretchen Murphy, University of Texas at Austin.
 3. "Militant, Ruthless, Radical: On Democracy's Sovereign Arts," Jennifer Greiman, Wake Forest University.
 4. "American Enchantment and Graduate Study," Gabriela Valenzuela, University of California at Los Angeles.
 5. "Constitutive Forms & Body Politics," Jeffrey Hole, University of the Pacific.
 6. "Enchanted Bodies," Sam Sommers, University of California at Los Angeles.
 7. "Enchantments and Entanglements," Maria Karafilis, California State University at Los Angeles.
- Respondent: Michelle Sizemore, University of Kentucky.

Audio-Visual Equipment: none

Session 9-K Trauma, Masculinity, and the Human Condition in the Work of Kurt Vonnegut
Organized by the Kurt Vonnegut Society

Chair: Zachary Perdieu, University of Georgia

1. "The Masculinity of Labor in Kurt Vonnegut's Player Piano," Esteban Rojas Castro, Independent Scholar
2. "Kurt Vonnegut & Carl Sagan: A Tale of Two Assholes," Ben Reed, Texas State University

3. "Tethered, Untethered: Coping and the Mythic Collective in Ceremony and Slaughterhouse-Five," Zachary Perdieu, University of Georgia
4. "I'll Call it the Children's Crusade": Historical Trauma in Slaughterhouse-Five," Kerstin Tuttle, University of South Dakota

Audio-Visual Equipment required: None

Session 9-L Business Meeting: Edith Wharton Society

Session 9-M Business Meeting: Available

Friday, May 25, 2018
12:40 –2:00 pm

Session 10-A Visions of Faith in Marilynne Robinson
Organized by Marilynne Robinson Society

Chair: Haein Park, Biola University

1. Kathryn Ludwig, "Liminal spaces in Marilynne Robinson's Lila"
2. Peter Ndaita, "Sensus Divinitatis in the Writings of Marilynne Robinson"
3. Liz Duke, "Marilynne Robinson and Religious Discourses of the Christian Right"
4. Taylor Johnston, 'Perhaps only from watching gulls fly': Critical Protestantism and the White Lower Middle Class in Marilynne Robinson's Housekeeping"

Audio-Visual Equipment Required: Yes

Session 10-B "Textual Afterlives: Dislocation, Distortion, Recuperation"
Organized by the Reception Study Society

Chair: Bryan Sinche, University of Hartford

1. "Out of Context: The Critical Dilemma of Artists' Books," Alexandra Gold, Boston University
2. "The Life and Afterlife of James Mars's Narrative," Bryan Sinche, University of Hartford
3. "John Brown's Afterlives in the Literature of Anti-Racist Movements," Timothy Robbins, Graceland University

Audio-Visual Equipment required: projector for powerpoint presentations

Session 10-C Ecologies of Hispaniola: Historical Memories and (Neo)colonial Realities
Organized by The Edwidge Danticat Society

Chair: Dr. Nadège Clitandre, UC Santa Barbara

1. Orchidelirium in Edwidge Danticat's Work: Oscillating Between the Cosmopolitan and the Indigenous, Weishun Lu, UW-Madison
2. History Without Memory: The Memorialization of the Parsley Massacre in Edwidge Danticat's The Farming of Bones, Sara Santos, Stony Brook University
3. Edwidge Danticat Writes Back: Borders and Displacement Breath Eyes Memory and The Farming of the Bones, Rochell Isaac, Ph.D., LaGuardia Community College, CUNY
4. "Visioning Black Futures: Edwidge Danticat as Cultural Worker" Maia Butler, Ph.D., University of North Carolina Wilmington

Audio-Visual Equipment Required: Projector

Session 10-D Articulating Otherness: Morrison, Baldwin, Coates
Organized by the Toni Morrison Society

Chair: Dana A. Williams, Howard University

1. "'A Dream Deferred?': Baldwin, Morrison and Coates on Race and the American Dream," Angelyn Mitchell, Georgetown University
2. "Morrison, Baldwin, Coates: The Politics of Dismantling the House that Race Built," Marilyn Sanders Mobley, PhD, Case Western Reserve University
3. "Reexamining the Concept of Whiteness and Reclaiming the Site of Empowerment in Toni Morrison and Ta-Nehisi's Coates's Works," Aoi Mori, Meiji Gakuin University
4. "The Community of Self: Acts of Memory, Black Ontology, and Identity Formation in the Worlds of Toni Morrison, James Baldwin and Ta-Nehisi Coates," Kokahvah Zauditu-Selassie, Coppin State University

Audio-Visual Equipment Required: Projector and Screen

Session 10-E Henry James Out West
Organized by the Henry James Society

Chair: Oliver Herford, University of Birmingham

1. "Henry James's Sense of the West", Philip Horne, University College London
2. "A Sense of the Past that is not my own: Henry James, the American West, and Public Memory", Beverly Haviland, Brown University
3. "Daisy Miller in Hollywood", John Carlos Rowe, University of Southern California

Audio-visual equipment requested: projector and screen for PowerPoint presentations

Session 10-F The Politics of Teaching Latina/o/x Literature
Organized by Latina/o/x Literature and Culture Society

Chair: Javier Rodríguez, University of North Texas

1. "Libros Are For Everyone: Teaching Latinx Literature for All," Christopher Carmona, University of Texas Rio Grande Valley and Isaac Chavarría, South Texas College
2. "The Communal 'Yo': Pedagogical Strate/Challenges For Teaching Autobiographies in Latinx Literature," William Arcé, California State University, Fresno
3. "Well, That Didn't Work': Lessons from the Latinx Literature Classroom," Javier Rodríguez, University of North Texas

Audio-Visual Equipment required: Projector for Powerpoint/DVD presentations and Screen

Session 10-G Jack London: Mystic, Ghost, Psychologist

Organized by the Jack London Society

Chair: Jeanne Reesman, University of Texas at San Antonio

1. The Occult Freedom of Jack London's The Star Rover, Daniel Mrozowski, Trinity College
2. London's Midwestern "Romp": From Kelly's Army to John Barleycorn, Stories of Jack London as traced in the Quincy Daily Whig/Quincy Daily Journal, Michael J. Martin, Stephen F. Austin State University
3. The Rude Rhythm: Jack London's Before Adam and the Dialogic Self, Gregory Bruno, Teachers College, Columbia University

AV: Yes, PowerPoint

Session 10-H The Early "Nasty Woman": Recovering "Unruly" Voices in American Literature - Part 1

Chair: Elif Armbruster, Suffolk University

1. "Overcoming the Literary Legacy of the Woman Physician as a Nineteenth Century Nasty Woman," Margaret Jay Jessee, University of Alabama at Birmingham
2. "The Unruly Tongue of American Naturalism in Edith Summers Kelley's Weeds," Myrto Drizou, Valdosta State University
3. "'Mere, mère, mater, Mary': H. D.'s Linguistic Alchemy," Alyssa Duck, Emory University

Audio-Visual Equipment Required: Laptop Projector for PowerPoint Presentations

Session 10-I New Directions in Chesnutt Scholarship

Organized by the Charles W. Chesnutt Association

Chair: Bill Hardwig, University of Tennessee

1. "Circuits of life in Charles Chesnutt's Conjure Stories," Anna Thomas, Brown University
2. "'Dead and Superfluous Limbs': Uncanny Landscapes and Disabled Bodies in Charles Chesnutt's The Colonel's Dream," Kelly Vines, Louisiana State University
3. "The Mechanics of Racial Uplift: Efficiency and Waste in Chesnutt's The Colonel's Dream," Brian Gazaille, University of Oregon

Audio-Visual Equipment required: none

Session 10-J Murders and Murderers: Eudora Welty's Take on Detective Fiction
Organized By The Eudora Welty Society

Chair: Julia Eichelberger, College of Charleston

1. "Rediscovering the Mystery: Eudora Welty and the Transformation of a Genre," Suzanne Marrs, Millsaps College
2. "Welty in the First Degree: Eudora Welty's Use of Crime Fiction and the Killing of 'Miss Welty,'" Jacob Agner, University of Mississippi
3. "Attacks of the Ponder Heart: Killing Bonnie Dee Softly," James Andrew Crank, University of Alabama
4. "Evolving Secrets: Eudora Welty's Career in Mystery Fiction," Harriet Pollack, College of Charleston

Session 10-K: Shirley Jackson's Strange Domesticities

Organized by the Shirley Jackson Society

Chair: Melanie R. Anderson, Glenville State College

1. "Strange Domesticity: Shirley Jackson's Early New Yorker Stories," Ashley Lawson, West Virginia Wesleyan College
2. "We Have Always Lived in the Castle, Lizzie and Emma Borden, and the Specter of Murderous New England Maidens," Karen Roggenkamp, Texas A&M University—Commerce
3. "Cat Stories, Moon Fantasies, and Fairytales: Refashioned American Domesticity in We Have Always Lived in the Castle," Richard Pascal, Australian National University
4. "Domestic Love in We Have Always Lived in the Castle and the Ghosts of Economics Past," Allison Douglass, The Graduate Center, CUNY

Audio-Visual Equipment: No

Session 10-L: Business Meeting: Washington Irving Society

Friday, May 25, 2018
2:10 – 3:30 pm

Session 11-A Margaret Fuller: In the Classroom and Beyond
Organized by the Margaret Fuller Society

Chair: Charlene Avallone, Kailua, Hawai'i

1. "Using Fuller to Teach Fuller: Creating Agency and Security," Holly Dykstra, Laredo Community College
2. "Teaching Margaret Fuller, Fanny Fern, and the Nineteenth-Century Press in the Wake of #MeToo," Callie Gallo, Fordham University
3. "Elemental Bodies: Mapping the Materialist Cartographies of Margaret Fuller's 'Leila' and Kate Chopin's The Awakening in a Women's, Gender, and Sexuality Studies Classroom," Lesli Vollrath, University of Houston
4. "Praxis of Duality: The Sisterhood of Fuller's 'Leila' and Du Bois's 'Atlanta'," Nanette Rasband Hilton, University of Nevada--Las Vegas

Audio-Visual Equipment required: projector and screen

Session 11-B Dirty Words: Profanity, Power, and American Humor
Organized by the American Humor Studies Association

Chair: Jeffrey Melton, University of Alabama

1. "'Mere Formula—Nothing More': Poe, Profanity, and the Gothic in 'Never Bet the Devil Your Head,'" Carl Ostrowski, Middle Tennessee State University
2. "You Are a Fking Ahole": The Metaphor of Profanity in American Humor," John C. Bird, Winthrop University
3. "Crude Sex and the Death of American Humor Magazines," David E. E. Sloane, University of New Haven

Respondent: Bruce Michelson, University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign

Audio-Visual Equipment Required: projector/screen

Session 11-C Emily Dickinson Out of Context
Organized by the Emily Dickinson International Society

Chair: Faith Barrett, Duquesne University

1. "Conjecturing a Climate: On Reading Dickinson's Winter Poems in the Anthropocene," Adam Sweeting, Boston University
2. "Poetry Torn Up by the Roots: Dickinson, Biopolitics, and Settler Ecology," Sean Ash Gordon, University of Massachusetts, Amherst
3. "'Tell it slant—': Emily Dickinson and Testimonial Aesthetics," Wendy Tronrud, CUNY Graduate Center

AV: projector requested

Session 11-D New Readings of William Burroughs

Organized by the Beat Studies Association

Chair: Allison Douglass, Graduate Center, CUNY

1. "Existentialism/Posthumanism: William Burroughs' Challenge to Jean-Paul Sartre," Tod Hoffman, Augusta University
2. "Burroughs' Image/Word Virus and the AIDS Crisis," Michael Lindsay-Chiappini, Case Western Reserve University
3. "Weaponization of Text and Subject in the Works of William Burroughs," Stephen Carter, University of Colorado-Colorado Springs

Audio-visual equipment required: Powerpoint projector/hookup those using Macs may need to provide their own connecting cords and dongles

Session 11-E Queer Chicana Activism and Performance Ahora!: Celebrating "International Hip Chick"
Monica Palacios
Organized by Latina/o/x Literature and Culture Society

Chair: Marci R. McMahon, University of Texas Rio Grande Valley

1. "Little Rooms, Big Cities: Spatial Encounters and Reconfiguring Borders in Monica Palacios's Art and Activism through VIVA," Eddy Alvarez, Portland State University
2. "'Kill the Orange Gringo': Monica Palacios's Queer Universalism and the Politics of Resistance," Reza Mirsajadi, Tufts University
3. "Sonic Intimacies and Queer Desire in Monica Palacios's I Kissed Chavela Vargas," Marci R. McMahon, University of Texas Rio Grande Valley
4. "Queer Chicana Soul: Live Performance by Monica Palacios," Monica Palacios, Independent Artist

Audio-Visual Equipment required: Projector for Powerpoint/DVD presentations and Screen

Session 11-F Theodore Dreiser, Open Topic
Organized by the International Theodore Dreiser Society

Chair: Cara Erdheim Kilgallen, Sacred Heart University

1. "Gonzo Dreiser: A Pioneer of Literary Journalism," Roark Mulligan, Christopher Newport University
2. "Gendered Geographies and the 'Precarity of Place' in Theodore Dreiser's Fiction," Jillmarie Murphy, Union College
3. "Communicative Paradigm for Afro-American Life: Dreiser's An American Tragedy and Richard Wright's Native Son," Ratan Bhattacharjee, Dum Dum Motijheel College

Audio-Visual Equipment Required: A projector for use in a PowerPoint presentation

Session 11-G Roundtable: Teaching the Works of Eudora Welty
Organized By The Eudora Welty Society

Moderator: Julia Eichelberger, College of Charleston

1. "Teaching 'A Curtain' in the Thick of Things: Welty and Race in Diverse Classrooms," Christin Marie Taylor, Shenandoah University
2. "Picturing Difference and Disability in Our Classrooms: Teaching Welty's Photographs," Keri Watson, University of Central Florida School of Visual Arts and Design
3. "Queering Welty's Male Bodies in the Undergraduate Classroom," Gary Richards, University of Mary Washington
4. "Welty's Place in the Undergraduate Theory Classroom," Annette Trefzer, University of Mississippi
5. "Teaching the Art of Welty's Letters," Julia Eichelberger, College of Charleston

AV request: projector

Session 11-H New Approaches to Saul Bellow's Work
Organized by the Saul Bellow Society

Chair: Gloria Cronin, Brigham Young University

1. "Rethinking Herzog: Notes towards an Investigation." Makayla Steiner, University of Iowa & Daniel Muhlestein, Brigham Young University
2. "Saul Bellow and Rudolph Fisher: A Comparative Study of King Dahfu in Henderson the Rain King and N'Gana Frimbo in The Conjure-Man Dies," Paul Devlin, United States Merchant Marine Academy.
3. "Critical Responses to Asaf Galay's New Documentary on Saul Bellow," Bill Etter, Irvine Valley College, Andrew Gordon, University of Florida, Allan Chavkin, Texas State University, and Gregory Bellow, author of Saul Bellow's Heart: A Son's Memoir.

Audio-Visual Equipment Required: Projector, Screen, and Laptop Connections

Session 11-I Lowell and Other Poets
Organized by the Robert Lowell Society

Chair: Charles Altieri

1. "'The threadbare art of my eye': Robert Lowell's Portraits of Poets," Sally Connolly, University of Houston
2. "Robert Lowell, John Brooks Wheelwright, and the Legacies of New England Radicalism," Jonathan McGregor, United States Air Force Academy
3. "'The world you've been saved from grasps you roughly: The Bostons of Robert Lowell and John Wieners," Leo Dunsker, University of California, Berkeley
4. "'Claudia Rankine's Lowell," Nikki Skillman, University of Indiana

Audio-Visual Equipment required: none

Session 11-J The Importance of the American Short Story: A Roundtable
Organized by the Society for the Study of the American Short Story

Moderator: James Nagel, University of Georgia

1. Alfred Bendixen, Princeton University

2. Jenn Alandy Trahan, Stanford University
3. Oliver Scheiding, University of Mainz, Germany
4. Olivia Carr Edenfield, Georgia Southern University
5. Enikő Maior, Partium Christian University, Romania.

Audio-Visual Equipment required: None

Session 11-K Bracebridge and Beyond: Christmas Traditions in American Literature
Organized by the Washington Irving Society

Moderator: Tracy Hoffman, Baylor University

1. Brian Garcia, Long Beach City College
2. Mary Higbie, Irving Heritage Society
3. Matthew Redmond, Stanford University
4. Judith Richardson, Stanford University
5. Mohammed Sharafuddin, University of Minnesota

Audio-Visual Equipment Required: none

Session 11-L Business Meeting: Toni Morrison Society

Session 11-M Business Meeting: Edwidge Danticat Society

Friday, May 25, 2018
3:40 – 5:00 pm

Session 12-A Empathy, Affect, and Friendship in Children's Literature
Organized by the Children's Literature Society

Chair: Linda Salem, San Diego State University

1. "Rural Subdivisions, Toxic Scat, Sexual Consent, and Betrayals: Empathy, Memory, and the Fantastic in Me and Marvin Gardens," Laura Nicosia, Montclair State University
2. "Children's Interpretation and Communication of Emotional Exchanges Among Friends in Literary Illustrations," Eva Nwokah, Our Lady of the Lake University, Casey Talianchich-Klinger, Our Lady of the Lake University, Ariana Garza, Our Lady of the Lake University
3. "Impact of Binaries on Affect and Friendship in Children's War Literature," Vera Veldhuizen, University of Cambridge

Audio-Visual Equipment required: Digital PowerPoint and screen; video capability to connect to personal laptop

Session 12-B Okada and Beyond
Organized by The Circle for Asian American Literary Studies (CAALS)

Chairs: David Cho, Hope College, and Christine Kitano, Ithaca College

1. "John Okada: The Life and Rediscovered Work of the Author of No-No Boy," Frank Abe, Resisters.com
2. "War and Words: Reading the Post-9/11 Bildungsroman," Anantha Sudhakar, San Francisco State University
3. "Citizenship and Belonging in Chang-Rae Lee's A Gesture Life," Roy Kamada, Emerson College

Audio-Visual Equipment required: projector

Session 12-C Emily Dickinson Out of Context II
Organized by the Emily Dickinson International Society

Chair: Renée Bergland, Simmons College

1. "'Miles on Miles / of Nought'?: Dickinson Rethinks Context and Relationality," Ryan Cull, New Mexico State University
2. "God Trap: Faith and Lack in the Poetry of Emily Dickinson," Katie Berta, Ohio University
3. "'Oh Subsidy of Balm!': Dickinson, Bataille, and Mystical Non-Knowledge," Jordan Greenwald, University of California, Berkeley
4. "'Back—Toward Time—And forward—': Conclusion, Possibility, and the Poetics of Contextlessness in Dickinson," Kacie Fodness, University of South Dakota

AV: projector requested

Session 12-D Pauline E. Hopkins's Activism
Organized by the Pauline Elizabeth Hopkins Society

Chair: John Cullen Gruesser, Kean University

1. "Pauline Hopkins and Advocacy Journalism," Rhone Fraser, Howard University
2. "Racial Transmigration in Pauline Hopkins's Of One Blood," Amadi I. Ozier, Rutgers University
3. "Anti-Lynching Activism in Pauline E. Hopkins' Contending Forces," John Cyril Barton, University of Missouri, Kansas City

Respondent: Cherene Sherrard-Johnson, University of Wisconsin, Madison

Audio-Visual Equipment: Projector for laptop

Session 12-E Modernism and Diagnosis

Organized by: Lisa Mendelman, Menlo College

Chair: Kyla Schuller, Rutgers University

1. "Modernist Pathologies," Lisa Mendelman, Menlo College

2. "Unhappy Victims: The Unreadability of Star Suicides and the Emergence of Personality Science," Katherine Fusco, University of Nevada-Reno
3. "Physically Injured, not Mentally Deficient: Scientific Racism in 'Flying Home'," Heather A. Love, University of South Dakota

Audio-Visual Equipment required: projector with a UB/AV port

Session 12-F "New" Theoretical Approaches to Dreiser Studies
Organized by the International Theodore Dreiser Society

Chair: Keith Newlin, University of North Carolina Wilmington

1. "Poor Mothers? Women's Agency, Adoption, and Class in Theodore Dreiser's Delineator (1907-1910) and Jennie Gerhardt (1911)," Jude Davies, University of Winchester
2. "What's Length Got to Do with It?: Dreiser and the Bourgeois Class," Jason Potts, St. Francis Xavier University
3. "Performing Gender on Skates and the Stage: Athletics and Art in Dreiser's The "Genius" and Sister Carrie," Cara Erdheim Kilgallen, Sacred Heart University

Audio-Visual Equipment required

Session 12-G F. Scott Fitzgerald I
Organized by the F. Scott Fitzgerald Society

Chair: Kirk Curnutt, Troy University

1. "Little Time for Moral Casuistry': The Cycle of Credit and Debt in 'The Diamond as Big as the Ritz' and Edith Wharton's The Glimpses of the Moon," Rebecca Lipperini, Rutgers University
2. "The Great Nick: Fitzgerald as Recovering Romantic in The Great Gatsby," Todd Onderdonk, St. Edward's University
3. "Post-Traumatic Healing in Zelda Fitzgerald's Caesar's Things," Sharon Kim, Judson University

Audio-Visual Equipment Required: PowerPoint capability

Session 12-H War and Its Transformations

Chair: Liam Corley, California State Polytechnic University, Pomona

1. "Nostalgia and the Un-Homely in Ambrose Bierce's Tales of Soldiers and Civilians," Susan Scheckel, Stony Brook University
2. "Occupied Others and Voyeuristic Readers: Sites of Iraqi/American Contact in Roy Scranton's War Porn," Brian J. Williams, Tennessee Tech University
3. "Gertrude Stein, Gunnar Myrdal, and Race in Stein's Brewsie and Willie," Rebecca Walsh, North Carolina State University
4. "Geographies of Traumatized Citizenship: Black Masculinity and War in Morrison's Fiction," Johanna X. K. Garvey, Fairfield University

Audio-Visual Equipment required: Computer projector

Session 12-I Philip Roth's Nonfiction: A Roundtable Discussion
Organized by The Philip Roth Society

Moderator: Benjamin Schreier, Penn State University

1. Jacques Berlinblau, Georgetown University
2. James Bloom, Muhlenberg College
3. Andy Connolly, Hostos Community College of CUNY
4. David Gooblar, University of Iowa
5. Benjamin Schreier, Penn State University
6. Matthew Shipe, Washington University in St. Louis

Audio-Visual Equipment required: None

Session 12-J Culture and Literature of the Chicago Renaissance: Postmodern and Postcolonial Development

Organizer and Chair: Yoshinobu Hakutani, Kent State University

1. " 'Careful Candours': Gwendolyn Brooks, T. S. Eliot, and the Poetics of Social Critique," Anita Patterson, Boston University
2. " 'All Narratives Are Lies, Man, an Illusion': Buddhism, Postmodernism, and Postcolonialism in Charles Johnson's Middle Passage and Dreamer," Preston Park Cooper, Austin Community College
3. "African Legacy and Chicago Politics in Barack Obama's Dreams from My Father," Babarcar M'Baye, Kent State University

Audio-Visual Requirement: None

Session 12-K Lowell Now
Organized by the Robert Lowell Society

Chair: Frank Kearful, University of Bonn

1. "Robert Lowell & the Hybrid Imaginary: Life Studies as Inclusionist Urtext," Phillip Crymble, University of New Brunswick
2. "'Lost / in the Mob': Life Studies and 'The Real Robert Lowell,'" Mark Bauer, University of California, Berkeley
3. "Between the Rock and the Sea: Robert Lowell's Poetics of the Now," Ian Copestake
4. "Robert Lowell's New Economy of the Poetic Vocation and the Stumbling Block of Commodity Fetishism," Gregorz Kosci, University of Warsaw

Audio-Visual Equipment required: none

Session 12-L Business Meeting: Society for the Study of the American Short Story

Session 12-M: Business Meeting: American Humor Studies Association

Session 12-N: Business Meeting: Catharine Maria Sedgick Society

Friday, May 25, 2018
5:10 – 6:30 pm

Session 14-A Race, Disability, and the Body (Politic) in O'Connor's Fiction

Organized by the Flannery O'Connor Society

Chair: Robert Donahoo, Sam Houston State University

1. "What Would Flannery Do?: Confederate Monuments, Southern Memory, and the History Behind History," Benjamin Sammons, Wingate University
2. "White Racial Anxiety in O'Connor's 'The Displaced Person,'" Justin Mellette, Auburn University
3. "The Deaths of Bishop Rayber: Drowning Normalcy in 'The Violent Bear It Away,'" Connie Chen, Wellesley College
4. "The Thing That Matters: Representing Disability in 'Good Country People,'" Andrea Ivanov-Craig, Azusa Pacific University

Audio-Visual Equipment required: Projector for PowerPoint presentations

Session 14-B William Stafford in the Anthropocene: Toward a Poetics of the "Earthbound"

Organized by the Friends of William Stafford

Chair: Laura Armstrong, Independent Scholar

1. "Ecopoetics of Home: William Stafford and Kansas," Ben Rawlins, Baylor University
2. "The Speaking World: William Stafford's Relational Poetics and Bruno Latour's Concept of Agency," James Armstrong, Winona State University
3. "William Stafford and the Eco-poetic Metaphor," Tim Barnes, Editor, Friends of William Stafford: A Journal & Newsletter for Poets & Poetry

Audio-Visual Equipment required: projector for powerpoint and screen

Session 14-C Sedgwick (and Her Contemporaries) Beyond Unitarianism

Organized by the Catharine Maria Sedgwick Society

Chair and Respondent: Ashley Reed, Virginia Tech

1. "Stowe's New England Parishes," Jessica Ling, University of California at Berkeley.
2. "Unitarians, Shakers, and Infidels: The Problem of 'Rational Christianity' in Sedgwick's Redwood," Gretchen Murphy, University of Texas at Austin.
3. "Disenchanted: Skeptical Women and Emergent Secularity in Early American Fiction," Dawn Coleman, University of Tennessee at Knoxville.

Audio-Visual Equipment required: projector and screen

Session 14-D Roundtable: Toni Morrison: The Work of a Literary Artist and the Work of Public History and Remembrance

Organized by the Toni Morrison Society

Moderators: Craig Stutman, Delaware Valley State University, Carolyn Denard, Georgia College and State University

Roundtable Participants:

Lori Martin, Louisiana State University

Chris Momany, Adrian College

Lynne Simpson, Oklahoma State University

Audio-Visual Equipment Required: Projector and Screen

Session 14-E Third-Generation Holocaust Representation

Organized by The Society for American Jewish Literature

Chair: Hilene Flanzbaum, Butler University

1. "Artifacts of Memory: Eduardo Halfon and the Legacy of the Third Generation," Victoria Aarons, Trinity University
2. "A Special Kind of Kinship: On Being a '3G' Writer," Erika Dreifus, Independent Writer
3. "Picturing Past, Present and Future: Contemporary Graphic Holocaust Literature," Jessica Lang, Baruch College, CUNY

Audio-Visual Equipment required: Yes; projector and screen for PowerPoint presentation

Session 14-F Jack London: Biographical Relationships and Legacy

Organized by the Jack London Society

Chair: Anita Duneer, Rhode Island College

1. How Jack London Founded Students for a Democratic Society, Jay Williams, Independent Scholar
2. Of Two Minds – the Widow and the Maker: Understanding Charmian Kittredge London's Creative Life After Jack London's Death, Iris Jamahl Dunkle, Napa Valley College
3. Jack London's Personal Physician: William S. Porter, M.D. (1867-1948), Richard M. Rocco, Samuel Merritt University

AV: Yes, PowerPoint

Session 14-G Reading American Democracy in New Contexts

Chair: TBA

1. "The Paradox of Representative Democracy in Crèvecoeur's Letters from an American Farmer and Franklin's Autobiography," Michael Tavel Clarke, University of Calgary
2. "Transformative (Trans)Nationalism and the Irish American Citizen: Roosevelt, Dooley, and the fight for True Americanism," James Patrick Byrne, Wheaton College
3. "Harriet Jacobs' Underground Railroad: Restoring Missing Ties," Mary Maillard, Independent Scholar
4. "'When I Was a Boy China': Restoring the Periodical Context," J. Michael Duvall, College of Charleston

Audio-Visual Equipment required: Projector and screen to show images

Session 14-H Continuities in Thom Gunn's Elegiac Poems

Organizer and Chair: Sally Connolly, University of Houston

1. "Thom Gunn's Elegy to Robert Lowell by Another Name," Florian Gargaillo, Boston University
2. "'Rites of Passage': Thom Gunn's and Robert Duncan's Anthems for Doomed Youth," Mark Scroggins, Florida Atlantic University
3. "'Holding off the Avalanche': Scale, Measurement, and Intimacy in Gunn's Elegies," Emily Leithauser, Emory University

A/V: no

Session 14-I Enthusiasm and the Wild: Reverence, Irreverence, Survival

Organized by the Western Literature Association

Chair: Michael K. Johnson, University of Maine, Farmington

1. "Canaan in California: The Typological Impulse in the Religious Discourse of the Gold Rush," Lawrence Coates, Bowling Green State University
2. "Bret Harte's Outdoor Impiety," Tara Penry, Boise State University
3. "Neither Naked nor Afraid: Survivalist Misunderstandings of Thoreau's Wilderness," Kate Huber, University of Central Oklahoma

Audiovisual Equipment Required: None

Session 14-J A Choir of Resistance": "Unruly" Voices and "Nasty" Women in American Literature [Part II]

Chair: Elif Armbruster

1. "A Choir of Resistance: Margaret Fuller's Network of Nasty Women in Woman in the Nineteenth Century," Lesli Vollrath, University of Houston
2. "Nasty Women in the Press: Margaret Fuller, Fanny Fern, and the Pitfalls of Professionalization," Callie Gallo, Fordham University
3. "'A Peculiar Case' of Women's Writing in Elizabeth Stoddard's The Morgesons," Ki Yoon Jang, Sogang University (Seoul)
4. "The Unruly, Unmarried Black Woman Mimi Daquin of Walter White's Flight," Julie Anne Naviaux, University of Alabama in Huntsville

5. "Wandering Women and Queer Resistance in Djuna Barnes' Nightwood," Victoria Chandler, University of South Carolina
6. "Teaching the 'Nasty Woman': Facing Resistance in the Classroom," Elif Armbruster, Suffolk University

A/V: no

Session 14-K Business Meeting: Theodore Dreiser Society

Session 14-L Business Meeting: Circle for Asian American Literary Studies

Session 14-M Business Meeting: Pauline Elizabeth Hopkins Society

Friday, May 25, 2018

6:30 – 7:15 pm

Annual Business Meeting for Representatives of Member Author Societies

Friday May 25, 2018

7:15- 9:00 pm

African American Literature and Culture Society Reception Reading and Book Signing:

Reading by giovanni singleton, recipient of the 2017 Stephen E. Henderson Award for Outstanding Achievement in Poetry

Presentation of the Darwin T. Turner Award to Michele Elam

A reception hosted by the African American Literature and Culture Society, the Charles W. Chesnutt Society, the Paul Laurence Dunbar Society, the Pauline Hopkins Society, the Toni Morrison Society, the Ralph Ellison Society, Octavia E. Butler Literary Society, and the John Edgar Wideman Society, and sponsored by the African American Literature and Culture Society and the American Literature Association will precede the reading.

giovanni singleton is the author of Ascension (2011), winner of the California Book Award Gold Medal for poetry, and AMERICAN LETTERS: works on paper (2017). Her poetry appears in many anthologies and is inscribed on the Yerba Buena Center for the Arts in San Francisco, CA. She has been a fellow at the Squaw Valley Community of Writers, Cave Canem, and the Napa Valley Writers Conference, as well as a recipient of the New Langton Bay Area Award. She is the coordinator for the Lunch Poems series at the University of California-Berkeley and founding editor of nocturnes (re)view of the literary arts. She has taught at Saint Mary's College, Naropa University and New Mexico State University.

Saturday, May 26, 2018

8:10 – 9:30 am

Session 15-A Approaches to Ernest J. Gaines
Organized by the Ernest J. Gaines Society

Chair: Marcia Gaudet, University of Louisiana at Lafayette, Emerita

1. An International and Comparative Approach to Ernest J. Gaines's Catherine Carmier: The Influence of Ivan Turgenev's Fathers and Sons, Toru Kiuchi, Nihon University
2. Miss Jane's Kitchen: Ernest Gaines and the Contemporary South, Terrence Tucker, University of Memphis
3. Into the "Gothic Heart" of Ernest Gaines's The Autobiography of Miss Jane Pittman, Ineke Bockting, Catholic University of Paris

Audio-Visual Equipment required: Yes

Session 15-B Refugee Counternarratives
Organized by the Circle for Asian American Literary Studies (CAALS)

Chair: Cathy J. Schlund-Vials, University of Connecticut

1. "Refugee Memes: Remembering Historical Trauma and Violence in the Digital Commons," Long Bui, Vassar College
2. "Your Mountain Lies Down with You': Hmong Refugee Political Geography in Afterland," Ma Vang, University of California, Merced
3. "Rewriting the History of the Vietnam War and Its Aftermath in Viet Thanh Nguyen's The Sympathizer," Roberta Wolfson, California Polytechnic State University
4. "Magical Passages through the Refugee Regime in Mohsin Hamid's Exit West," Mai-Linh K. Hong, Bucknell University

Audio-Visual Equipment required: projector

Session 15-C Eugene O'Neill: Context, Development, and Influence
Organized by the Eugene O'Neill Society

Chair: David Palmer, Massachusetts Maritime Academy

1. "Unmasking the Mask: Eugene O'Neill, Sam Shepard, and W. B. Yeats in an Alternative Universe," Janet M. Roberts, Independent Scholar
2. "All the World's a Capitalist Structure: The Allegory of O'Neill's The Hairy Ape through Performance," Lauren Luedtke, San Diego State University
3. "The Influence of Eugene O'Neill's Theatre on the Modern Brazilian Stage," Isadora Grevan de Carvalho, Rutgers University

Audio-Visual Equipment Required for O'Neill Society Session 1: A screen and a projection system to which both a Macintosh and a PC laptop computer can be connected. Note Mac user may need to provide connector or dongle.

Session 15-D Bartleby Now
Organized by the Melville Society

Chair: Meredith Farmer, Wake Forest University

1. "Is non-preference a preference?" Wendy Anne Lee, New York University
2. "Bartleby is nothing," Nancy Ruttenburg, Stanford University
3. "'The Brain in Your Gut': An Update on Bartleby and Digestion," Ralph Savarese, Grinnell College
4. "Prediction and Personhood: 'Bartleby' as Causal System," Hannah Walser, Harvard University

Audio-Visual Equipment required: Internet with sound for PowerPoint and video. [We are unable to provide internet access.]

Session 15-E O'Connor, Catholicism, and Creativity: New Connections/Considerations
Organized by the Flannery O'Connor Society

Chair: Andrea Ivanov-Craig, Azusa Pacific University

1. "Coffey with O'Connor: The Importance of Georges Rouault," Robert Donahoo, Sam Houston State University
2. "Two Enochs: Regional Grotesquerie in the Works of Sherwood Anderson and Flannery O'Connor," Laura Henning, Daytona State College
3. "Subjective Correlatives: Flannery O'Connor, Walter Benjamin, and Translational Fiction," William Gonch, University of Maryland
4. "Flannery O'Connor's Absent Fathers: The Working (Through) of Grief in Program Era Fiction," Benjamin Batzer, University of Iowa

Audio-Visual Equipment required: Projector for PowerPoint presentations

Session 15-F Representations, Revisions, and Crises in Eliot's Poetry: New Perspectives
Organized by the T. S. Eliot Society

Chair: Nancy K. Gish, University of Southern Maine

1. "Taking 'Doris's Dream Songs' Seriously," Michael Coyle, Colgate University
2. "Eliot and the Ecology of Death," Julia Daniel, Baylor University
3. "The Waste Land Re-configured: T. S. Eliot and Tadeusz Rózewicz," Aleksandra Majak, University of St. Andrews

Audio-Visual Equipment required: Projector for powerpoint and screen

Session 15-G Charles Olson's Correspondence and the Emerging of the New American Poetry and Poetics

Organized by the Charles Olson Society

Chair: Jeff Gardiner, Independent Scholar

1. "Love and the Idea of Form: On the Correspondence of Robert Duncan and Charles Olson," Dale M. Smith, Ryerson University
2. "Epistolary Polemics: Olson and Blackburn," Erik Noonan, Independent Scholar
3. "John Wieners' Projective Verse," Michael Seth Stewart, University of Alabama
4. "Least Song in the Age of Quantity: Form and the Charles Olson/Robert Creeley Correspondence," Joshua Hoeynck, Case Western Reserve University

Audio-Visual Equipment required: Projector (connected to laptop) and speakers

Session 15-H: The Education of Henry Adams at 100: A Round Table Discussion

Organized by the Henry Adams Society

Chair: Joanne Jacobson, Yeshiva University

1. "Time and Its Subversion: The Education as a Self-Consuming Artifact," Ormond Seavey, The George Washington University
2. "Henry Adams and James McNeill Whistler: An Education in Form," Barry Maine, Wake Forest University
3. "The New Man of The Education of Henry Adams: Race, Force, and (Proto)fascism in Henry Adams' Autobiography," Sanders Isaac Bernstein, University of Southern California
4. "The Education of Esther: Henry Adams and the Eternal Woman in The Education," Ariel Silver, Claremont Graduate University
5. "Some Matters I'd Take up with Henry Adams Were He Alive Today." William Merrill Decker,

Session 15-I: American Gothic: Past and Present

Organized by The Edgar Allan Poe Society of Baltimore

Chair: Benjamin F. Fisher, Emeritus, University of Mississippi

1. "Toying with the Past in the Works of Shirley Jackson and M. R. James" Melanie R. Anderson, Glenville State College
2. "The Politics of Recycling Andrew Klavan's The Uncanny" Andrew Smith, Sheffield University
3. "Adah Isaacs Menken's and Postbellum Gothic" Travis Montgomery, Oklahoma Christian University

4. "Many-Voiced Men: Gothic Masculinities in Hawthorne's Short Stories
Ian Jayne, Oklahoma Christian University

Session 15-J: Concepts of Land and People - Native American Visions

Chair: TBA

1. "The Land and the People are Inseparable': Writing the Oral and Visual in Leslie Marmon Silko's memoirs Sacred Water and Turquoise Ledge," Annette Portillo, University of Texas
2. "Dime Novelists and American Indians," Roger L. Nichols, University of Arizona
3. "From Cherokee to the Middle East: Diane Glancy's Polyphonic Prayer for Syria in The Collector of Bodies," Angela Mullis, Rutgers University
4. "Performing the Past and the Possible in Louise Erdrich's The Last Report on the Miracles at Little No Horse," Shari Evans, University of Massachusetts

Audio-Visual Equipment required: none

Saturday, May 26, 2018
9:40 – 11:00 am

Session 16-A "Black" Modernism and After

Organized by the African American Literature and Culture Society

Chair: Keith Byerman, Indiana State University

1. "White Money: The Black Internationalism of Andrea Lee," Tyrone Williams, Xavier University.
2. "Celebrating Ancestry: Michael S. Harper and Twenty-First-Century Poets," Annette Debo, Western Carolina University.
3. "Persona as Palimpsest: Natasha Trethewey's Native Guard and the Archive," Ryan Sharp, University of Texas at Austin.

A/V: Yes

Session 16-B Whitman and the Press

Organized by the Whitman Studies Association

Co-chairs: Stefan Schöberlein, University of Iowa; Stephanie M. Blalock, University of Iowa

1. "Clerk Trouble: Masculinity and Consumerism in Whitman's Print Culture," Jason Stacy, Southern Illinois University Edwardsville
2. "Whitman's 1855 Preface as Bridge and Barrier," Peter J. Bellis, University of Alabama at Birmingham
3. "The Poet of (Many Happy) Return(s): Whitman the Birthday Boy," Micah Bateman, The University of Texas at Austin

Audio-Visual Equipment required: Digital Projector/Screen for PowerPoint presentations; HDMI and mini-HDMI; Internet Access [We are unable to provide internet access. Those using Macs may need to provide their own connecting cords and dongles.]

Session 16-C Asian American History in Literary Imagination
Organizer and Chair: Lan Dong, University of Illinois Springfield

1. "Settling the Unsettled Past: Ethnic Roots in David Mura's Suicides of the Japanese Empire," Yuki Obayashi, University of California, Santa Cruz
2. "Analysis of Julie Otsuka's The Buddha in the Attic from Legal and Gender Perspectives," Kaori Mori Want, Konan Women's University
3. "Crafting Stories Untold: Wong's Escape to Gold Mountain and The Central Pacific," Tena L. Helton, University of Illinois Springfield

Audio-Visual Equipment required: internet access and projector and connector for PowerPoint presentation [We are unable to provide internet access.]

Session 16-D Social Justice Pedagogy Round Table
Organized by the Lydia Maria Child Society

Moderator: Lucy Sirianni, University of Berkeley

1. "Rise Up! Protest and Dissent in American Literature," Randi Lynn Tanglen, Austin College
2. "'He Asked Me if I Meant to Persist in My Resistance': Social Justice in the American Literature Classroom at a High-Risk, High-Need University," Autumn R. Lauzon, University of North Carolina, Pembroke
3. "Connecting through the Past: How the Nineteenth Century Can Teach Social Justice Today," Emily Donaldson Field, Bridgewater State University
4. "Teaching the Social Justice Spectrum: Lydia Maria Child and Pauline Elizabeth Hopkins," April C. Logan, Salisbury University
5. "Teaching Sentiment in the Age of Trump: Child, Stowe, Jacobs, and My Millennial Students," Tara Robbins Fee, Washington & Jefferson College
6. "'Incidents in the Life of a Blind Girl': Intersectional Disability Justice in the American Literature Classroom," Lucy Sirianni, University of California, Berkeley

Audio-Visual Equipment required: Yes, for projection of photos/images from laptops

Session 16-E Illustrating Crime Fiction
Organized by the Crime Fiction Group

Chair: Alfred Bendixen, Princeton University

1. "Illustrating 'The Murders in the Rue Morgue,'" John Gruesser, Kean University
2. "Old Sleuths: Portraying Age in Detective Serials, 1870-1900," Nathaniel Williams, University of California, Davis
3. "Graphic Rage: Melvin Van Peebles, Georges Wolinski, and La Reine des pommes," Kinohi

Nishikawa, Princeton University

Audio-Visual Equipment Required: Projector and Laptop Connection [Those using Macs may need to provide their own connecting cords and dongles.

Session 16-F Aesthetics and Ethics: New Readings of Four Quartets
Organized by the T. S. Eliot Society

Chair: Nancy K. Gish, University of Southern Maine

1. "Christian Beliefs and Constructivist Aesthetic: Giving Concrete Body to the Work of Spirit in 'Ash Wednesday' and 'Four Quartets,'" Charles Altieri, University of California Berkeley
2. "Remains to Be Seen: Alienation and Affirmation in 'Burnt Norton,'" LeeAnn Derdeyn, Southern Methodist University
3. "Beethoven, Nietzsche and Eliot: Music in a Time of War," Aakanksha Virkar Yates, University of Brighton

Audio-Visual Equipment Required: Projector for powerpoint and screen

Session 16-G "Models of Exactness" in the Poetry of Marianne Moore
Organized by the Marianne Moore Society

Chair: Carly Rubin, Louisiana State University

1. "Marianne Moore and Scientific Images," Elspeth Green, Princeton University
2. "Moore's Counterpoint," Elizabeth Gregory, University of Houston
3. "Precisians and Precisionists: Moore and O'Keeffe" Ashley Lazevnick, Princeton University

Audio-Visual Equipment required: Powerpoint Projector and Screen

Session 16-H The "Motherline" and the Maternal Body: Explorations into the Labors of Pregnancy, Childbirth, and Motherhood in American Women's Writing
Organized by the Society for the Study of American Women Writers

Chair: Christopher Allen Varlack, University of Maryland-Baltimore County

1. "'She was brought to bed': The Queer Temporality of Early American Childbirth and the Holyoke Women's Diaries (1760-1856)," Sam Sommers, University of California, Los Angeles
2. "The 'will to flower': Diane di Prima's Countercultural Maternity," Mary Paniccia Carden, Edinboro University of Pennsylvania
3. "'Many-Gendered Mothers': Motherhood in Jesmyn Ward's Salvage the Bones," Eliza Holmes, Harvard University
4. "Changing Bodies, Changing Selves: Feminism, Materiality, and Maternity in Maggie Nelson's The Argonauts," Rachel Cara Warner, University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill

Audio-Visual Equipment Required: Projector/Screen

Session 16-I New Directions in Mark Twain Studies
Organized by the Mark Twain Circle of America

Chair: Bruce Michelson, University of Illinois

1. "Writers Reading and Readers Responding: Mark Twain, Leonard Cohen, and Joan of Arc," Susan K. Harris, University of Kansas
2. "Readers' Theater: The Diaries of Adam and Eve," Linda Morris, University of California, Davis, emerita and Larry Howe, Roosevelt University
3. "Heedless and Too-Bold's Watery Enchanted Ground: The Pilgrim's Progress as a Predecessor Text to Adventures of Huckleberry Finn," Liam Purdon, Doane University

A/V: No

Session 16-J Alcott in the Classroom
Organized by the Louisa May Alcott Society

Chair: Christine Doyle, Central Connecticut State University

1. "Louisa May Alcott, Major Author," Gregory Eiselein, Kansas State University
2. "'Thirteen Ways of Looking': Alcott's Eight Cousins in the Collegiate Classroom," Anne K. Phillips, Kansas State University
3. "Money Matters: Bridging the Gap Between Alcott's Romanticism and Realism in the Classroom," Monika Elbert, Montclair State University

Audio-Visual Equipment required: none

Session 16-K Cormac McCarthy I
Organized by the Cormac McCarthy Society

Chair: Stacey Peebles, Centre College

1. "'A Snare and a Delusion': Collaboration, Commodification, and Cowboys in Cormac McCarthy's Cities of the Plain," Jamie Brummer, Christian Brothers High School
 2. "Teaching Gender and Sexuality in Cormac McCarthy," Lydia Cooper, Creighton University
 3. "Avatars of Working Class Identity in Suttree," Sean Hooks, University of California, Riverside
 4. "Malkina: Reading Cormac McCarthy's Villainess" Alexandra Chiasson, Louisiana State University
- Audio-Visual Equipment required: None

Session 16-L Business Meeting: Society for American Jewish Literature

Session 16- M Business Meeting: Ernest Gaines Society

Session 16-N Business Meeting: Eudora Welty Society

Session 16-O: Business Meeting: Available

Saturday, May 26, 2018
11:10 am – 12:30 pm

Session 17-A What it Means to be Human in the Work of Octavia E. Butler”
Organized by the Octavia E. Butler Literary Society

Moderator: Tarshia Stanley, Spelman College

1. Michael Sean Bolton, Santa Fe College
2. Gabriela Serrano, Angelo State University
3. Angela Rovak, University of Oregon

Audio-Visual Equipment required: Projector

Session 17-B Asian American Histories and Citizenship: Concepts of Legality in Literature
Organized by the Circle for Asian American Literary Studies (CAALS)

Chair: Krupal Amin, The Ohio State University

1. “Contradictions Between Citizenship and Empire in Sabina Murray’s The Caprices,” Laura Wright, University of Connecticut
2. “‘Release him from all paper’: Two Appropriations of American Legal Documentation in Asian American Poetics,” Alex Howerton, University of South Carolina
3. “(Un)Documenting the ‘Good’ Immigrant in Fae Myenne Ng’s Bone,” Emily Yoon Perez, University of Maryland, College Park

Audio-Visual Equipment required: projector

Session 17-C Katherine Anne Porter: A Woman of Letters
Organized by the Katherine Anne Porter Society

Chair: Christine Grogan, The Pennsylvania State University

1. “‘All my past is usable’: Online Access and the Katherine Anne Porter Correspondence Project at the University of Maryland,” Amber Kohl and Beth Alvarez, University of Maryland
2. “Katherine Anne Porter’s Special Bond,” Alice Cheylan, Université de Toulon
3. “Millennialism: The Past Is the Present,” Jerry Findley, Independent Scholar

Audio-Visual Equipment required: projector for powerpoint presentation and internet connection [We are unable to provide internet connection.]

Session 17-D Cupcakes, Cruelty, and Curses: Fresh Considerations of Lydia Maria Child
Organized by the Lydia Maria Child Society

Chair: Sandra Burr, Northern Michigan University

1. "Cookbook Morality: Child vs. Corporate Cookbooks," Linda Civitello, Ph.D., Independent Scholar
2. "Lydia Maria Child and the National Movement to Prevent Animal Cruelty," Meredith Eliassen, San Francisco State University
3. "'Chocorua's Curse,' Domestic Space and Ecology," Lisa West, Drake University

Audio-Visual Equipment required: Yes, for projection of photos/images and of PowerPoint slides from laptops

Session 17-E Space and Smell in Crime Fiction

Organized by the Crime Fiction Group

Chair: Kinohi Nishikawa, Princeton University

1. "The Naked City: Weegee and New York Crime Writers," Kelly Ross, Rider University, and Evelio Contreras, Independent Scholar
2. "Detective Fiction and the Politics of Deodorization," Hsuan Hu, University of California, Davis
3. "The Trouble with LAPD: Space and State Control in the Police Procedural," Aliko Varvogli, University of Dundee

Audio-Visual Equipment Required: Projector and Laptop Connection

Session 17-F American Jewish Literature and Trauma

Organized by The Society for American Jewish Literature

Chair: Victoria Aarons, Trinity University

1. "Can Jewish-American Trauma be American Trauma? A Discussion of the Novels of Jonathan Safran Foer," Hilene Flanzbaum, Butler University
2. "Poverty After Auschwitz: The Forgotten Survivors in American Jewish Literature," Anthony Wexler, Case Western Reserve University
3. "'Child Not Born': The Figure of an Unborn Child in the Age of Genocide," Aimee Pozorski, Central Connecticut State University

Audio-Visual Equipment required: Yes; projector and screen for PowerPoint presentation

Session 17-G Charles Olson's Correspondence and the Emerging of the New American Poetry and Poetics

Organized by the Charles Olson Society

Chair: Jeff Gardiner, Independent Scholar

1. "Encountering the Poet's Hand: Charles Olson's Archive, the Commons, and the Twin Impulses of Composition and Exchange," Melissa Watterworth Batt, Curator, Charles Olson Research Collection,

University of Connecticut

2. "Charles Olson: Post and Polis," Matthew Hofer, University of New Mexico
3. "Duncan, Olson & the Hidden Agenda of Small Press Publications," Clément Oudart, Sorbonne University
4. "My Muse Is Kleos': Tying It Together. Charles Olson's Correspondence with Ann Charters," Jeff Davis, Independent Scholar
5. "The Door is Open: Charles Olson," documentary on the making of the Maud-Olson library housed at the Gloucester Writers Center

Audio-Visual Equipment required: Projector (connected to laptop) and speakers [We are unable to provide speakers.]

Session 17-H "She Was Becoming Herself and Daily Casting Aside that Fictitious Self": Critiques of Domesticity and Servitude in American Women's Writing

organized by the Society for the Study of American Women Writers

Chair: Sabrina Starnaman, University of Texas at Dallas

1. "Under the Pressure of Much Care and Business to My Profession': The Invisible Editorial Labor of Susanna Haswell Rowson," Kristina Garvin, Saint Joseph's University
2. "Caroline Kirkland, Harriet Wilson, and the Environmental Critique of Domesticity," Dylan Ford, University of Massachusetts Amherst
3. "Not 'the old story over again': Coming Womanhood and Coming-of-Age in Fettered for Life," Elizabeth A. Boyle, Purdue University
4. "Finding Identity in Nature: Elizabeth C. Wright's Call to Nineteenth-Century American Women," Derra Clark, Washtenaw Community College

Audio-Visual Equipment Required: Projector/Screen

Session 17-I Ralph Ellison and the Ethics of Writing

Organized by the Ralph Ellison Society

Chair: Marc Conner, Washington and Lee University

1. "Ralph Ellison's Archaeology of History," Michael Germana, West Virginia University
2. "Universal Indictment: Ralph Ellison's Invisible Man and the Ethics of Confession," Ryan Siemers, University of Utah
3. "Tell It Like It Is, Ralph?: Ellison the Rise of Creative Nonfiction," Kevin Moore, University of California at Santa Barbara
4. "Ellison on the Color of Memory," Sterling Bland, Rutgers University, Newark

Audio-Visual Equipment required: None

Session 17-J Teaching Early American Drama

Organized by the Society of Early Americanists

Chair: Jennifer Mylander, San Francisco State University

1. Heather Nathans, Tufts University, "The Avatar Project: Embodying the Archive in Early American Theatre and History"
2. Betsy Klimasmith, University of Massachusetts Boston, "From the Closet to the Classroom: Performance Pedagogy in Early American Literature Courses"
3. Paul Lewis, Boston College, "Teaching the Terrible; Or, Taking William Charles White's Orlando: Or Parental Persecution, A Tragedy, to School"
4. Kimberly A. Southwick-Thompson, University of Louisiana at Lafayette, "Women in the Sequel: Using Hamilton to Spotlight the American Enlightenment and Return Revolutionary Female Playwrights to Center Stage"

Audio-Visual Equipment required: None

Session 17- Affective Historiography in Percival Everett's Fiction Organized by the Percival Everett International Society

Chair: Ameer Carmine, Hampton University

1. "Pain, Violence, and Parody: Critical Distance/ Intimate Suffering in Percival Everett's The Water Cure," Ameer Carmine, Hampton University
2. "Percival Everett's Fiction as Historiography; or, manipulating narrative to our own selfish ends," James Donahue, The State University of New York, College at Potsdam

Session 17-L Business Meeting: Marianne Moore Society

Session 17-M: Business Meeting: Louisa May Alcott

Session 17-N: Business Meeting: Mark Twain Circle

Session 17-O: Business Meeting: Kate Chopin Society

Saturday, May 26, 2018
12:40 – 2:00 pm

Session 18-A Underground, Indie, and Alternative Publishing & the Graphic Novel
Organized by the Comics and Graphic Narratives Circle

Chair: Rachel Miller, The Ohio State University

1. "Latinx Comics: The Untold History of Alternative Comics," Frederick Aldama, The Ohio State University
2. "Publishing Policies and (Independent) publishing houses as topoi in Comics and Graphic Novels," Barbara

Eggert, Danube University Krems

3. "My Kid Could Have Done That!: John Porcellino's King Cat and Comics at the Crossroads," Joshua Abraham Kopin, University of Texas—Austin

Audio-Visual Equipment required: Projector and Screen

Session 18-B Roundtable: Digital Sleuthing and Lost Texts: Reading in the Age of Expanding Archives
Organized by the Digital Americanists society

Moderators: Stefan Schöberlein, University of Iowa; Stephanie M. Blalock, University of Iowa, Kevin McMullen, University of Nebraska—Lincoln

Participants:

1. Zachary Turpin, University of Idaho
2. Angela Pettitt, Penn State Shenango
3. Bonnie James Shaker, Kent State University
4. James E. McWilliams, Texas State University

Audio-Visual Equipment required: Digital Projector/Screen for PowerPoint presentations; HDMI and mini-HDMI; Internet Access, Laptop (if possible). [We are unable to provide, internet access or a laptop. Those using Macs may need to provide their own connecting cords and dongles.]

Session 18-C New Perspectives on Paul Laurence Dunbar

Organized by the Paul Laurence Dunbar Society

Chair: John Cyril Barton, University of Missouri, Kansas City

1. "The Curious Afterlife of 'Life': or, When a Poem Takes on a Life of It's Own," Thomas Morgan, University of Dayton
2. "'The Negro Poet-Reader': African-American Elocutionists' Dunbar Recitations," Amy Hobbs Harris, Central State University
3. "The Messy Signification of Home in Paul Laurence Dunbar's The Sport of the Gods," Summer Kokic, Southern Methodist University

Audio-Visual Equipment Required: projector

Session 18-D Currents of Life: Mysticism, Politics, and Desire in the late H.D.

Organized by the H.D. International Society

Chair: Celena E. Kusch, University of South Carolina Upstate

1. "The Poetics of Hindsight in H.D.'s Vale Ave," Lisa Banks, McGill University
2. "The Politico-Mystical Turn in H.D.'s Late Writing," Lheisa Dustin, Zayed University
3. "'The Wire She Was': Modern and Electric Sexuality in H.D.'s Nights," Haley Larsen, Purdue University

Audio-Visual Equipment required: standard projector

Session 18-E Eugene O'Neill Today: Pedagogy, Dramaturgy, and Transnationality. A Round-Table Discussion

Organized by the Eugene O'Neill Society

Moderator: Steven F. Bloom, Lasell College

Robert M. Dowling, Central Connecticut State University

Eric Fraisher Hayes, The Eugene O'Neill Foundation, Tao House

Katie Johnson, Miami University

Jeffery Kennedy, Arizona State University

Daniel McGovern, The Eugene O'Neill Foundation, Tao House

Alexander Pettit, University of North Texas

Beth Wynstra, Babson College

Audio-Visual Equipment Required for Eugene O'Neill Society Session 2: A screen and a projection system to which both a Macintosh and a PC laptop computer can be connected. Mac user may need to provide connector or dongle.

Session 18-F Travel Writing of Asylum and Refuge

Organized by the Society for American Travel Writing

Chair: Gary Totten, University of Nevada Las Vegas

1. "Checkpoints: Crossing Fraught Borders," Carolyn Kraus, University of Michigan Dearborn
2. "Children of War: Narratives of Conflict in Syria and Iraq in Children's Literature," Angela Morris, University of Memphis
3. "Rising Stars and Fallen Women: Emily Hahn's Shanghai," Jeffrey Mather, City University of Hong Kong
4. "Stories of Displacement in Graphic Travel Writing: Sarah Glidden's Rolling Blackouts," Agnese De Marchi, Ca Foscari University of Venice

Audio/visual required: projector

Session 18-G Ethnicity and Immigration in the Midwest

Organized by The Society for the Study of Midwestern Literature

Chair: Kirk Curnutt, Troy University

1. "The Parthian Legacy: Irish Catholicism and the New American West in Willa Cather's My Mortal Enemy," Vera Foley, Auburn University
2. "Ethnicity and Immigration: 'The Crossroads of America' in Mohja Kahf's The Girl in the Tangerine Scarf," Hasnul Djohar, University of Exeter
3. "All are Machines: Labor and Addiction in Algren's The Man with the Golden Arm," Doug Sheldon, University of Illinois at Chicago
4. "Non-Parallel Lines: Virginia Campbell, Bridget, and Sally," Kathleen Butterly Nigro, University of Missouri-St. Louis

Audio-Visual Equipment Required: Projector and Screen

Session 18-H Repeat, Revise, Resist: The Work of Elizabeth Oakes Smith's Late Indian Novels

Organized by: Timothy Scherman, Northeastern Illinois University

Chair: Cynthia Patterson, University of South Florida

1. "Without Mercy': Revising the Historical Record in Elizabeth Oakes Smith's Indian Novels," Tracey Daniels-Lerberg, University of Utah
2. "Contesting the Uncontested: Revisions and Race in Oakes Smith's The Bald Eagle," Timothy Scherman, Northeastern Illinois University
3. "Writing for Revenge: Two Tales, Twenty Years, and a Lifetime of Rage," Rebecca Jaroff, Ursinus College

Audio-Visual Equipment required: Powerpoint Projection

Session 18-I Roundtable Discussion on "The Newness of Little Women"

Organized by the Louisa May Alcott Society

Moderators: Gregory Eiselein and Anne K. Phillips, Kansas State University

1. "New Friendship Flourished Like Grass in Spring': The Newness of Friendship in Little Women," Sarah Wadsworth, Marquette University
2. "Still March-ing: How Rap Music Brought an Age-Old Story to a New Generation," Lindsay Taylor, Independent Scholar
3. "Little Women Revisited: Alcott and New Media," Krissie West, University of Reading, UK
4. "The Newness of Little Women and the Ephemeral Horror Mash-Up," Marlowe Daly-Galeano, Lewis-Clark State College
5. "Girl Power: A Look at Recent Little Women Adaptations," Elise Hooper, Independent Scholar

Audio-Visual Equipment required: none

Session 18-J Haiku in America and Japan: The Interaction between Two Countries

Organizer and Chair: Toru Kiuchi, Nihon University

1. "Mutual Influence between the American and the Japanese Haiku," Toshio Kimura, Nihon University
2. "Richard Wright's Haiku and Basho," Yoshinobu Hakutani, Kent State University
3. "Sonia Sanchez's Haiku and Japan," Heejung Kim, Independent Scholar

Audio-visual Equipment required: None

Session 18-K Disruptive Environments and Strange Relationships

Chair: TBA

1. "Approaching the Wild in the Writing of James Dickey and Jack London," Kenneth K. Brandt, Savannah College of Art and Design
2. "Lovecraft's Queer Ecology: Ambivalence and Xenophilia," Neill Matheson, University of Texas
3. "The Answers Are Always Changing: Echoes of Raymond Carver in Bobbie Ann Mason's Shiloh and other Stories," Molly Donehoo, Georgia Southern University
4. "It Is Dreadfully Hard for a Mother to be Separated from her Children": Bursting the Myth of Women's Work in Dorothy Canfield's The Home Maker," Ann Bliss, Texas A&M University-San Antonio

Audio-Visual Equipment required: None

Session 18-L Business Meeting: Society for Contemporary Literature

Session 18-M: Business Meeting: Octavia Butler Society

Session 18-N: Business Meeting: Ralph Ellison Society

Session 18-O: Business Meeting: Katherine Anne Porter Society

Saturday, May 26, 2018
2:10– 3:30 pm

Session 19-A Drawing While Black

Organized by the Comics and Graphic Narratives Circle

Chair: Caitlin McGurk, The Ohio State University

1. "Deliberate Design: Barbara Brandon,* Black Feminism & the American Comedic Tradition," Jalylah Burrell, Depaul University
2. "Sequential Art and Slavery: Trauma in the Graphic Novel Adaptation of Octavia Butler's Kindred," Samantha Robinson, Johns Hopkins University
3. "How to Be Drawn: Forms of Representation and the Black Male Poetic in Terrance Hayes," Emmy Waldman, Harvard University

Audio-Visual Equipment required: Projector and Screen

Session 19-B Percival Everett and the Problem(s) of Language and Representation
Organized by the Percival Everett International Society

Chair: Keith Mitchell, University of Massachusetts, Lowell.

1. "Percival Everett's Westworld: The West as Baudrillardian Dystopia in Grand Canyon, Inc (2001) and American Desert (2004)," Michel Feith, Université de Nantes, France.

2. "Percival Everett's Zulus: Text, Paratext, Intertext," Keith Mitchell, University of Massachusetts, Lowell.
3. "Notes of a Native Novelist: Percival Everett's Satiric Blueprint of Critical Self-Help in Glyph," Johannes Kohrs, Freie Universität Berlin, John-F.-Kennedy-Institut für Nordamerikastudien

Audio-Visual equipment required: for second session only.

Session 19-C Truth in Fiction / Fiction in Truth: The Impulse Toward Nonfiction and Truth-Telling in Recent Literary Production

Organized by Fred Johnson, Whitworth University
Sponsored by the Society for Contemporary Literature

Chair: Grant O. Palmer, University of California, Riverside

1. "Archives of Fiction: Time Travel and Embodied History in Kiese Laymon's Long Division," Meghan Burns, University of Connecticut
2. "The Serial 'I': Brian Reed's S-Town Podcast and the Literary Nature of First Person Memory," Jacqueline Patz, University of Minnesota, Twin Cities
3. "True Lines: Art, Truth Telling, and Creative Nonfiction in Joe Sacco's War Zone Comics," Fred Johnson, Whitworth University

Audio-Visual Equipment required: Projector with ability to connect to presenter laptops, inc. a MacBook Air. Speakers for audio. [We are unable to provide speakers.]

Session 19-D Melville and the Emergence of Trumpism Organized by the Melville Society

Chair: James Noel, Los Medanos College

1. "Trumpism and the Know-Nothing Party" Madison Furrh, Colorado State University- Pueblo
2. "The Pilgrimage and Pepe: What Clarel Can Tell Us about the Alt-Right," Caitlin Smith Oyekole
3. "Melville, Trump, and the Politics of Aggrievement," David Blake, The College of New Jersey
4. "Crippled America: Trump, Ahab, and the Materialist Turn," Nathan Wolff, Tufts University

Audio-Visual Equipment is needed

Session 19-E Politics, Poetics, and Race in Depression-Era American Literature Organized by: William Solomon

Chair: William Solomon, University at Buffalo

1. "A Feeling for History: African American Historical Representation During the Depression," Nathaniel Mills, University of Minnesota
2. "Fusing an Alloy: Muriel Rukeyser at the Limits of Poetry / Documentary," Sarah Ehlers, University of Houston

3. "It Will Have Happened Here Then: American Dictator Novels and the Thirties Today," Matthew Stratton, University of California at Davis

A/V requested

Session 19-F Mary E. Wilkins Freeman: Open Topic
Organized by the Mary E. Wilkins Freeman Society

Chair: Ken Johnson, Perimeter College - Georgia State University

1. "No Pity: Mary E. Wilkins Freeman, Subsistence, and 'The Tears of Things,'" Clare Mullaney, University of Pennsylvania
2. "The Brevity of the American Short Story: Mary E. Wilkins Freeman, Edith Wharton, and the British Marketplace," Stephanie Palmer, Nottingham Trent University
3. "Queering the Canon: Freeman's Unlikely Companions in the American Literature Classroom," Aušra Paulauskiene, LCC International University, Lithuania

Audio-Visual Equipment Required: Yes (presenters will use PowerPoint presentations)

Session 19-G F. Scott Fitzgerald II
Organized by the F. Scott Fitzgerald Society

Chair: Sharon Kim, Judson University

1. "The Last Tycoon on film and television: a comparative analysis and a rekindled interest in Fitzgeraldiana?" Patricia Fra-López, University of Santiago de Compostela
2. "F. Scott Fitzgerald's Musical Imaginary," Meghan Burns, University of Connecticut
3. "Fitzgerald and the 21st-Century High School Student: Teaching in the Age of Instagram," Mia Manzulli, Princeton Day School

Audio-Visual Equipment Required: PowerPoint capability

Session 19-H Form and Meaning in Contemporary Poetry
Chair: TBA

1. "Ruining American Poetry: Frank O'Hara's Aesthetic of Action," Magdelyn Helwig, Western Illinois University
 2. "Reading/Representing Disability in Molly McCully Brown's The Virginia State Colony for Epileptics and Feeble-minded," Andrea Ivanov-Craig, Azusa Pacific University
 3. "The Morning of the Poem in the Autumn of the System: James Schuyler's Middle-Ground Poetics," Tobias Huttner, Johns Hopkins University
 4. "One immaterial body, a fictive person': Disjunctions of Scale and the Economic Sublime in Timothy Donnelly's The Cloud Corporation," Ann Keniston, University of Nevada
- Audio-Visual Equipment required: Projector

Session 19-I Above the American Renaissance: David S. Reynolds and the Spiritual Imagination in American Literary Studies

Moderator: Harold K. Bush, Saint Louis University

1. Harold K. Bush, Saint Louis University
2. Tracy Fessenden, Arizona State University
3. Nathaniel Williams, University of California
4. Mary Eyring, Brigham Young University
5. Sean Pears, State University of New York
6. Audrey Raden, Independent scholar
7. David S. Reynolds, City University of New York Graduate School

Session 19-J Approaches to Teaching Kate Chopin Round Table Organized by the Kate Chopin International Society

Chair: Christina G. Bucher, Berry College

1. "Bird Songs: Teaching the 'Soundtrack' of The Awakening," Mark Schiebe, Queensborough Community College, The City University of New York
2. "Passing for 'Normal': Edna Pontellier's Universal Struggle," Chris Gilmer, Alcorn State University-Vicksburg
3. "Enriching Kate's Stories with Stories of Kate's Life," Gerri Chopin Wendel, Independent Scholar and Chopin descendant
4. "CRISPing the Classroom: Renewing Chopin through Evolving Pedagogy," Kathleen Butterly Nigro, University of Missouri-St. Louis
5. "Students' Creative Responses to Chopin's Works," Kelli Purcell O'Brien, University of Arkansas at Pine Bluff

Audio-Visual Equipment required: None

Session 19-K Cormac McCarthy II Organized by the Cormac McCarthy Society

Chair: Steven Frye, California State University, Bakersfield

1. "Eucatastrophic Consolations in Cormac McCarthy's The Road," Haein Park, Biola University
2. "With Love Alone: Cormac McCarthy and Weak Thought," Bryan Vescio, High Point University
3. "'Dreams of race that was,' Loss and Quietism in Cormac McCarthy's The Orchard Keeper" Fredrik Svensson, Karlstad University, Sweden
4. "With His Cattle in His Hand: The Assassin as Radically Autonomous Interpellator," C. T. Mexica, Arizona State University

Audio-Visual Equipment required: None

Session 19-L Business Meeting: Margaret Fuller Society

Session 19-M Business Meeting: Digital Americanists

Session 19-N Business Meeting: Eugene O'Neill Society

Session 19-O Business Meeting: Lydia Maria Child Society

Saturday, May 26, 2018
3:40 – 5:00 pm

Session 20-A Textual History, Historical Texts

Organized by the African American Literature and Culture Society

Chair: Grégory Pierrot, University of Connecticut at Stamford

1. "A Practice of Print: JNMA and the Archiving of Black Medical Professionalism," Patrick Allen, The Pennsylvania State University.
2. "Kindred's Roots," Angela Rovak, University of Oregon.
3. "Facts, Authentic Narratives, Letters, &c.: William Still's Recirculation of Nineteenth-Century Print Culture," Renée Belliveau, University of Waterloo, Canada.

A/V: Yes

Session 20-B Postindustrial Environments

Organized by Laura Finch, University of Michigan, and Theodore Martin, University of California, Irvine
Sponsored by the Society for Contemporary Literature

Chair: Fred Johnson, Whitworth University

1. "The Chronopolitics of Irremediable Environments," Jessica Hurley, University of Chicago
2. "Model Cities and Ghost Maps: Scale and Site in Contemporary Ecopoetics," Margaret Ronda, University of California, Davis
3. "Narrative Mobility and Global Cities: Joseph O'Neill's Netherland and Teju Cole's Open City," Jeffrey Gonzalez, Montclair State University
4. "The Post-Remittance City," Aku Ammah-Tagoe, Stanford University
5. "The Financialization of Nature in the 21st-Century novel," Laura Finch, University of Michigan
6. "Deindustrializing the Crime Novel," Theodore Martin, University of California, Irvine

Audio-Visual Equipment required: projector and mac/PC laptop hookup [Those using Macs may need to provide their own connecting cords and dongles.

Session 20-C Margaret Fuller: Out of New England

Organized by the Margaret Fuller Society

Chair: Noelle Baker, Independent Scholar

1. "Of Good and Noble Aspect: Margaret Fuller, Catholicism and Pius IX (1847-1850)," Simone Maria Puleo, University of Connecticut, Storrs
2. "Romantic Revolutions: Cosmopolitan Radicalism in Margaret Fuller's Dispatches from Europe," Clemens Spahr, Mainz University, Germany
3. "'The Morning Star of Margaret Fuller': The Woman's Club Movement and the Legacy of Fuller's Conversations," Katie Kornacki, Caldwell University
4. "Who's Afraid of Margaret Fuller?: Literary and Biographical Connections Between Virginia Woolf and Margaret Fuller," Michael Schrimper, Independent Scholar

Audio-Visual Equipment required: projector and screen

Session 20-D Sites of Agency or Exploitation: Perspectives on Public/Private Spheres by American Women Writers of Color

organized by the Society for the Study of American Women Writers

Chair: Christopher Allen Varlack, University of Maryland-Baltimore County

1. "'I am Homeless and Alone': Rebuilding Sites of Racial Belonging in Iola Leroy," Brittany Susson, Loyola University Chicago
2. "Why 'being swallowed up into some little man' is Not Enough: Anna Julia Cooper's Vision of Love and Liberation," Vivian M. May, Syracuse University
3. "Uplift, Image, and Selfhood in Nella Larsen's Quicksand," Jenna Marco, University of South Carolina
4. "'We all walk that line': Labor, Gender, and Precarity in 21st Century American Workplace Dramas," Megan Behrent, New York City College of Technology, CUNY

Audio-Visual Equipment required: Projector

Session 20-E From Poe to Ellis: Genre and Crime Fiction

Organized by the Crime Fiction Group

Chair: Molly Donahue, Georgia Southern University

1. "Six Secret Murder Mysteries by Edgar A. Poe," Susan Amper, Bronx Community College
2. "'Inference, Accidents and Closed Rooms in 'The Murders in the Rue Morgue,'" Tianyu Ma, New York University
3. "Pop Reprisals: Genre in Bret Easton Ellis' Less Than Zero and Imperial Bedrooms," Erik Noonan, Independent Scholar

Audio-Visual Equipment Required: Projector and Laptop Connection

Session 20-F Borders, Boundaries, and "a Flourishing Friendship": The Work of Lyn Hejinian, Leslie Scalapino and their Collaborations

Organizer: Laura Hinton, City College of New York of CUNY

Chair: William J. Harris, University of Kansas

Respondent: Lyn Hejinian, University of California, Berkeley

1. "Perverse Crossings and Muse X: Lyn Hejinain's Oxota: A Short Russian Novel," by Julie Carr, University of Colorado, Boulder
2. "Transautography and Leslie Scalapino," by Lisa Samuels The University of Auckland (New Zealand)
3. "Visual Bounds of Friendship": The Scalapino-Hejinian Collaboration Sight," by Laura Hinton, City College of New York (CUNY)

Audio-Visual Equipment required: Yes

Session 20-G Cape Cod

Organized by the Thoreau Society

Chairs: Rochelle Johnson and Kristen Case

1. "Economic Imperception in Henry David Thoreau's Cape Cod," Alex Moskowitz, Boston College
2. "Cape Cod, Literature, and the Illocality of Thinking about Capital," Benjamin Pickford, Université de Lausanne
3. "Spring of Springs, Waterfall of Waterfalls: Cape Cod in Thoreau's Hydrologic Cycle," Michael Ziser, UC Davis

Audio-Visual Equipment required: Yes

Session 20-H Stevens' Americana

Organized by the Wallace Stevens Society

Chair: Zachary Tavlin, University of Washington

1. "'A comprehensive island hemisphere': Stevens and the Banjo," Florian Gargaillo, Boston University
2. "Wallace Stevens and John Ashbery: The Influence of Americana," Elisabeth Joyce, Edinboro University
3. "Re-placing Stevens' Americana: Dialectical Uptakes of Stevensian Motifs in Contemporary American Poetry," Alex Streim, Johns Hopkins University

Audio-Visual Equipment required: Basic projector

Session 20-I American Haiku

Organized by the Haiku Society of America

Chair: Peter McDonald, California State University, Fresno

1. "The Postdomestic Woman in Roberta Beary's The Unworn Necklace," Joshua Gage, Cleveland State University
2. "Lenard D. Moore's Jazz Haiku," Ce Rosenow, Lane Community College
3. "Sonia Sanchez's 'magic words': Black History, Haiku & Healing," Meta L. Schettler, California State University, Fresno

4. "American Haiku Poets Are Missing Out on All the Fun: Sociality of Japanese Haiku and the Dearth Thereof in American Haiku," Richard Tice, Independent Scholar

Audio-Visual Equipment Required: None

Session 20-J Exploring Kate Chopin's Writing Through Theoretical and Legal Lenses
Organized by the Kate Chopin International Society

Chair: Kelli Purcell O'Brien, University of Arkansas at Pine Bluff

1. "The Right of Repose: Time as Unit of Justice in Kate Chopin's At Fault," Trinyan Mariano, Florida State University
2. "Shedding Cultural Capital: Why Edna Pontellier Can't Just Walk Away From It," Claudia Milstead, University of Northern Colorado
3. "Re-reading Kate Chopin's Ignored Story 'A Morning Walk' as a Key to Her Oeuvre," David Wehner, Mount St. Mary's University

Audio-Visual Equipment required: None

Session 20-K Not Just the In-betweens: Politics, Art, and Transnationalism in the Work of Maxine Hong Kingston
Organized by the Maxine Hong Kingston Society

Chair: Erin Farmer, Solano Community College (Tentative)

1. "The Silence of the Grandfathers: Chinese Perspectives on China Men," Joan Qingjun Li, Belmont University
2. "Peace Consciousness through Literature: Aesthetic Design and Activism in Maxine Hong Kingston's Fifth Book of Peace and The Woman Warrior," Kuldip Kaur Kuwahara, North Carolina Central University
3. "Traveling with Maxine Hong Kingston, Wittman Ah Sing, and Fa Mook Lan in I Love a Broad Margin to My Life," John Whalen-Bridge, National University of Singapore

Audio-Visual Equipment Required: none

Session 20-L Business Meeting: Mary E. Wilkins Freeman Society

Session 20-M: Business Meeting: Percival Everett International Society

Session 20-N: Business Meeting: Cormac McCarthy Society

Saturday, May 26, 2018
5:10 – 6:30 pm

Session 21-A: RSAP Article Award Winners, Organized by The Research Society of American Periodicals

Chair: Mark Noonan, New York City College of Technology – CUNY

1. "The New School, the Mainstream, and the Avant-Garde," Josh Schneiderman, CUNY Graduate Center.
2. "From the Historical Avant-Garde to Highbrow Coterie Modernism: The Little Review's Wartime Advances and Retreats," Christopher LaCasse, U.S. Coast Guard Academy.
3. "Emancipatory Cosmology: Freedom's Journal, The Rights of All, and the Revolutionary Movements of Black Print Culture," Gordon Fraser, North Dakota State University.
4. "Join the Club: African American Children's Literature, Social Change, and the Chicago Defender Junior," Paige Gray, Fort Lewis College.

Audio-Visual Equipment required: projector and screen

Session 21-B Digital Interventions: DH Perspectives on (Dis)ability, Feminism, and Ecology.

Organized by the Digital Americanists Society

Co-chairs: Stefan Schöberlein, University of Iowa; Stephanie M. Blalock, University of Iowa, Kevin McMullen, University of Nebraska—Lincoln

1. "Computer, But More So: Autism and Artificial Intelligence," David Squires, University of Louisiana at Lafayette
2. "Cyberfeminism: Exploring Feminist Rhetoric and Digital Literacies in New Media," Cristen Fitzpatrick, St. John's University
3. "Magazine Ecology: Network Theory and Nineteenth Century Environmental Periodicals," Braden J. Krien, University of Iowa

Audio-Visual Equipment required: Digital Projector/Screen for PowerPoint presentations; HDMI and mini-HDMI; Internet Access, Laptop (if possible). [We are unable to provide internet access or a laptop. Those using Macs may need to provide their own connecting cords and dongles.]

Session 21-C Embodiment and Charlotte Perkins Gilman

Organized by the Charlotte Perkins Gilman Society

Chair: Jana Rivers-Norton, Cochise College

1. "The Social Power of Sleep in Charlotte Perkins Gilman's The Forerunner," Hannah Huber, University of South Carolina
2. "Period Piece: 'The Yellow Wallpaper' and Charlotte Perkins Gilman's Reclamation of Female Embodiment," Tess Frydman, University of Delaware
3. "A Grotesque Tea and Sympathy: Claustrophobic Discourse from Institutionalized Women," Mischelle Anthony, Wilkes University

Audio-Visual Equipment Required: Powerpoint projector and screen

Session 21-D Harriet Beecher Stowe Panel: New Approaches to Reading Stowe

Organized by the Harriet Beecher Stowe Society

Chair: Marlowe-Daly Galeano, Lewis-Clark State College

1. "Sailors in Uncle Tom's Cabin," Cynthia Smith, Miami University
2. "Botanical Stowe," Katherine Isabel Bondy, UC-Berkeley
3. "Vesey and Gordon's Righteous Insurrection: The Legacy of Denmark Vesey's Natural Rights Philosophy in Harriet Beecher Stowe's Dred," Christopher Allan Black, Auburn University
4. "Uncle Tom's Cabin: Jewett's Advertisement Methods Create a Perfect Puff Storm and 'The Story of the Age,'" Kelley Ann Endres, Indian University of Pennsylvania

Audio-Visual Equipment: would like the ability to use PowerPoint

Session 21-E New Directions in African American Literature

Chair: TBA

1. "Deconstructing Slavery: Visuality and Power in Cinematic Neo-Slave Narratives," Martha J. Cutter, University of Connecticut
2. "By the Bias: Fashion, Humor, Jazz and the Short Fiction of Toni Cade Bambara," Jalylah Burrell, DePaul University
3. "Baddest Bitches in Palmetto: The Nail Artisan Mafia Collective," Shelby Crosby, University of Memphis
4. "The Trope of Awkwardness," Tyrone Simpson, Vassar College

Audio-Visual Equipment required: Projector with video and sound

Session 21-F Beyond Modernism

Chair: TBA

1. "In Between a Modernist and Proletarian Ethic: Muriel Rukeyser and Transcendental, Visionary Bridges," Trudi Witonsky, University of Wisconsin
2. "A Poetics of the Great Depression: Style and Aesthetics in Tom Kromer's Waiting for Nothing," Robert Dale Parker, University of Illinois
3. "Rereading Sinclair Lewis: The Quest for Justice in Three Later Novels," Ralph Goldstein, Independent Scholar
4. "T-Bone Slim's Radical Satire," Owen Clayton, University of Lincoln, UK

Audio-Visual Equipment required: to connect iPad 3, present using Prezi Those using Macs may need to provide their own connecting cords and dongles.

Session 21-G Thoreau and Resistance

Organized by the Thoreau Society

Chairs: Rochelle Johnson and Kristen Case

1. "Radical Minimalism: Walden in the Capitalocene," Michelle C. Neely, Connecticut College
2. "Sounding Extinction: Thoreauvian Resistance to Monumental Death," Rachael DeWitt, UC Davis
3. "Thoreau Against Antigone, or, Individualism and Its Vicissitudes," Michael Mlekoday, UC Davis

Audio-Visual Equipment required: Yes

Session 21-H William Carlos Williams and West Coast poetry today
Organized by the William Carlos Williams Society

Chair: Ian Copestake, Independent Scholar

1. "Learning to Listen," Joseph Pease, California College of the Arts
2. "'Strange Courage': WCW's Inspiring Poetics of Self-Imposed Exile," Bill Mohr, California State University, Long Beach
3. "Williams in the MFA," Julia Bascombe, Free University of Berlin

Audio-Visual Equipment required

Session 21-I Ralph Ellison and the Contemporary American Moment (Round Table)
Organized by the Ralph Ellison Society

Moderator: Adam Bradley, the University of Colorado at Boulder

1. "Writing the Territory: Geography and Subjectivity in Ralph Ellison's Invisible Man," Emerson Hamsa, Rice University
2. "Alert Citizens, Anxious Times," Clare Seiler, Dickinson College
3. "Invisible Economies: Ralph Ellison and the Rise of Racial Capitalism," Keidrick Roy, Harvard University
4. "Ellisonian Lessons from the Federal Writers' Project," Benji de la Piedra, Columbia University
5. "Ellison, Beatty, #BlackLivesMatter: Critiquing the Charismatic Leader," Kirin Wachter-Grenek, New York University
6. "The Non-Option of Exile: A Sociologist and Ralph Ellison," Jualynne Dodson, Michigan State University
7. "Charlottesville and the Myth of the Flawed White Southerner," Tim Parrish, University of California at Davis

Audio-Visual Equipment Required: none

Session 21-J Ethics and Love in the Work of George Saunders
Organized by Not Yet the George Saunders Society

Chair: John Whalen-Bridge, National University of Singapore

1. "'Wonking for the Kids': Constructions of Masculinity and Fatherhood in the Fiction of George Saunders," Hollie Adams, Red Deer College, hollie.adams@rdc.ab.ca
2. "'I Should Have Loved You Better': George Saunders, Zygmunt Bauman, and the Levinasian Ethics of Ethics," Brian Jansen, University of Calgary/Red Deer College
3. "The Dispossessive Ethics of Saunders's Lincoln in the Bardo," Jade Becker, Oregon State University

Audio-Visual Equipment Required: none

Session 21-K: Poetry Reading: Lyn Hejinian

Session 21-L: Business Meeting: African American Literature and Culture Society

Session 21-M: Business Meeting: Society for the Study of American Women Writers

Saturday, May 26, 2018

6:30-7:30

A Reading from LINCOLN IN THE BARDO (2017)

Dramatis Personae

Willie Lincoln Maxine Hong Kingston
Abraham Lincoln Jim Collins
Roger Bevins III David Johnson
Hans Vollman Earl Kingston
Rev. Everly Thomas Lisa Tateosian
Eddie Baron John Whalen-Bridge
Betsy Baron Patty Raun

In the opening pages of the novel, Willie Lincoln is dying of typhoid fever while his parents must host a large state dinner in the White House. After Willie dies, Abraham Lincoln attempts to grapple with his loss by visiting his dead son's crypt, opening the casket, and holding his beloved son's body. This act deeply affects several of the spirits inhabiting the charnel ground, but Willie is disturbed by the sight. Now a disembodied spirit, Willie looks down upon his father and his own unrecognized body, unaware that he is dead. Why does his father walk away, abandoning him?

Saunders has defined the bardo as "a transitional state between lives," but the concept can apply more widely to a number of liminal situations. According to some Tibetan Buddhist teachings, everyday life (the shinay bardo), the dreams that come between one day and the next (the milam bardo), and the bardo of meditative experience (the samten bardo) are all moments in which in which beings struggle for clarity, though these lesser-known bardos are thought to be less consequential than the purgatorial term between lives. A traveler stuck in an airport due to a missed flight is in a kind of bardo, a period of uncertainty. While the novel is centered on the travail of Willie Lincoln, the boy's spiritual journey is artfully linked to that of all the other characters in this novel, and perhaps to the whole of American life that is shaped by Abraham Lincoln's choices.

Like Willie, the President finds himself caught between possibilities. The elder Lincoln faces crises that are at once spiritual, psychological, and political. In late February 1862, just after Grant's capture of Fort Donelson, the Civil War was beginning to metastasize into a new kind of war—the catastrophe that would claim over 600,000 American lives. During the course of the novel, the ten worst battles were yet to happen. Saunders takes us into the agonized heart of Lincoln as he struggles with what he should do.

Readers (and hearers) of Lincoln in the Bardo may find the central organizing metaphor to be quite timely. In response to the political rallies of a more recent politician, Saunders in early 2016 wrote that he had "never before imagined America as fragile, as an experiment that could, within my very lifetime, fail." Spiritually engaged and unfailingly intelligent, Lincoln in the Bardo appreciates profoundly the fragility of our individual lives and of our communal way of life.

With the kind permission of the writer, The Postmortem Players have come together to perform a reading of Lincoln in the Bardo for the American Literature Association.

Reception: 7:30 – 8:30

Sunday, May 27, 2018

Registration open 8:00 am - 10:20 am
(Pacific Concourse)

8:30 – 9:50am

Session 22-A 1830 is the New '20: The 1820s as Early American Literature
Organized by the Society of Early Americanists

Chair: Kathryn S. Koo, St. Mary's College

1. Thomas Koenigs, Scripps College, "The Great Struggle for Veracity between History and Fiction': Historical Fictionality in the 1820s"
2. David Lawrimore, Idaho State University, "Re-Periodizing the Historical Novel: Competing Historicisms in Memoir of the Northern Kingdom"
3. Steven Epley, Samford University, "A Possible Connection Between a Turn-of-the-Nineteenth Century Scandal and Susanna Rowson's Lucy Temple (1828)"

Audio-Visual Equipment required: None

Session 22-B On Williams's In the American Grain

Chair: Stephen Hahn, William Paterson University

1. "From Williams to Miranda: The Virtue of History and the Historical Fate of Alexander Hamilton," Ian Copestake, Independent Scholar;
2. "'the flower once ravished...': The Spirit of the Americas in In the American Grain," Daniel L. Burke, Loyola University of Chicago;
3. "'Inhuman Clarity'—WCW, Robert Lowell, and In the American Grain," Marcel Inhof, University of Bonn.

Audio-Visual Equipment required: None

Session 22-C Redeeming Absence in Twentieth-Century American Drama

Organized by: Matt DiCintio, American Theatre and Drama Society

Chair: Heather Nathans, Tufts University

1. "Performing Native American Absence in Larissa FastHorse's The Thanksgiving Play," Nelson Barre, University of Oregon
2. "Challenging the Exclusionary Concept of Whiteness: Two Plays by Native American Playwright Hanay Geiogamah," Danica Čerče, University of Ljubljana
3. "My Dinner without Andre: The Absence of AIDS in Terrence McNally's Mothers and Sons," Eric Jorgensen, UC – Santa Barbara
4. "These illegitimate children of my thought:" The Plays of W.E.B. Du Bois," Nicholas T. Rinehart, Harvard University

Audio-Visual Equipment required: None

Session 22-D Place and Space in American Writing

Chair: TBA

1. "In the Silence between Darkness and Light': Liminal Space in The Stories of Breece D'J Pancake," Christopher Blackburn, Georgia Southern University
2. "Does 'It All Turn on Affection'?: Wendell Berry, the Affective Turn, and the Question of Place," William Major, University of Hartford
3. "Francis Parkman—Traveler, Tourist, Cultural Voyeur," Susan L. Roberson, Texas A&M University-Kingsville
4. "The Speeches and Writings of Abraham Lincoln: An Eco-Critique," James Tackach, Roger Williams University

Audio-Visual Equipment required: none

Session 22-E Scandals and Failures of Reform Writing in the Long Nineteenth Century

Organizer: Ryan Schneider, Purdue University

Chair: Derek Pacheco, Purdue University

1. "Reform Porn: Ralph Werther's Autobiography of an Androgyne," Michael Borgstrom, San Diego State University
2. "(Twice) Wronged Women: Amelia Norman and Zulma Marache," Nicole Livengood, Marietta College
3. "Maria Stewart's Moral Worthiness," Ryan Schneider, Purdue University

Audio-visual Equipment Needed: None

Session 22-F African American Satire: Refashioning History and Genre

Organized by: Christopher A. Shinn, Howard University

Chair: Kelsey Kiser, Southern Methodist University

1. "Salon Directives: The Politics of Literary Salons in the Harlem Renaissance," Darryl Dickson Carr, Southern Methodist University
2. "Mystery Politics: The Case of Crime Fiction in George Schuyler's Ethiopian Stories," Christopher A. Shinn, Howard University
3. "Unmitigated Blackness: Paul Beatty, Selling Out, and the Rebirth of Black Satire in the 21st Century," Lisa Guerrero, Washington State University

Audio-Visual Equipment required: None

Session 22-G: Available

Sunday, May 27, 2018
10:00 – 11:20 am

Session 23-A "Great Male Narcissists": Reading (Against) Updike and Wallace Post-#MeToo
Organized by the John Updike Society and the International David Foster Wallace Society

This roundtable will explore "Great Male Narcissists," a phrase Wallace uses to describe Updike, Philip Roth, and Norman Mailer in his acerbic review of Updike's novel Toward the End of Time. This roundtable intends to explore the connections and disparities between Updike's and Wallace's work, especially regarding their depictions of masculinity. Special attention will also be given to the treatment of religion and spirituality in the work of both authors.

Chair: Mike Miley, Loyola University New Orleans

1. Matt Bucher, President, International David Foster Wallace Society
2. Ryan Lackey, Oregon State University
3. Alex Moran, Independent Scholar

Audio-Visual Equipment required: none

Session 23-B Contemporary African American Literature

Chair: TBA

1. "Elite Protest: Dorothy West and the Foundations of the Modern Black Elite," Terrence Tucker, University of Memphis
2. "The De/Historicized Body in Randall Kenan's A Visitation of Spirits," Deborah Wilson, Arkansas Tech University

3. "Seen and Unseen: Science, Technology, and Determinism in African American Literature," John Dudley, University of South Dakota
4. "Subversions or 'Perversions' of Passing?: Race, Gender, and Queer Sexuality in Linda Villarosa's Passing for Black and Helen Oyeyemi's Boy, Snow, Bird," Erika R. Williams, Emerson College

Audio-Visual Equipment required: None

Session 23-C American Fiction of Mid-19th Century

Chair: TBA

1. "Cross-Racial Class Vengeance in George Thompson's City Crimes," Timothy Helwig, Western Illinois University
2. "Hawthorne's Entangled Narratives and Narratives of Entanglement," Maria Karafilis, California State University
3. "Recasting the Picaro: Identity (Re)Construction in the Narrative of William W. Brown, A Fugitive Slave," Andrea Frankwitz, Gordon College
4. "Re-Imagining Mrs. Georgie Sheldon: Feminist Theory in 19th-Century Sentimental Fiction," Carol Degrasse, University of Texas

Audio-Visual Equipment required: None

Session 23-D Available