

The Manuscript Society

The Manuscript Society is accepting applications for its $5,000 Ricard Maass Memorial Research Grant, available to students at colleges and universities who belong to the Manuscript Society. The grant supports research expenses directly related to use of original manuscripts, such as travel to manuscript repositories, photocopies, and user fees. For more information, see <http://www.manuscript.org/2009scholarship.html>

Thank you.

Elizabeth H. Dow, PhD.
J. Franklin Bahyi Professor
School of Library and Information Science
Louisiana State University