

The Mary McCarthy Society will sponsor a panel at the American Literature Association Annual Convention in Boston, MA, May 23-26, 2019.

Call for Papers: The Many Lives of Mary McCarthy

With the recent reissuing of Mary McCarthy's fiction by Library of America (Thomas Mallon, ed. 2017), this panel will consider all aspects of Mary McCarthy's life and works. Some perspectives might include Mary McCarthy's contribution as a fiction writer, public intellectual, satirist, feminist, political activist, social commentator, and friend. Comparative readings of McCarthy in relation to other writers and literary and cultural movements are welcome. Please send 250 word abstract and brief bio to Sabrina.FuchsAbrams@esc.edu by January 10, 2019.

The American Literature Association's 30th annual conference will meet at the Westin Copley Place in Boston on May 23-26, 2019. For further information, please consult the ALA website at www.americanliterature.org or contact the conference director, Professor Olivia Carr Edenfield at carr@georgiasouthern.edu with specific questions.
