

American Literature Association: Walt Whitman at 200

There will be two Whitman panels, sponsored by the Whitman Studies Association, at the American Literature Association annual meeting in Boston, May 23-26, 2019. On the bicentennial of Whitman's birth, the panels will focus on how Whitman scholarship, biography, translation, and his cultural impact have developed and changed over time, and where Whitman studies may be headed in the years to come. Send 250-word abstracts of proposed papers to Ed Folsom (ed-folsom@uiowa.edu) by January 15, 2019. Details of the ALA conference are available at <https://americanliteratureassociation.org/ala-conferences/ala-annual-conference/>.
