

The Beat Studies Association is sponsoring two panels at the 2019 American Literature Association Conference to be held in Boston the weekend of May 23, 2019. You are invited to submit a 250-word abstract and a one paragraph bio via email to Deborah Geis at dgeis@depauw.edu. We will consider proposals on any aspect of Beat Generation literature or culture. Please note that (a) papers for these panels are vetted by the BSA and do not also need to be submitted to the conference-at-large; and (b) if your paper is accepted, you must agree to register for the conference by the ALA deadline of May 1, 2019.
