

The Thornton Wilder Society invites papers on any aspect of the author's career (novels, plays, essays). Possible topics include: approaches to teaching Wilder, comparisons to other authors, Wilder's influence on other artists or works. For information about the author's works and available editions, as well as published Wilder scholarship, go to www.twildersociety.org/works/ <<http://www.twildersociety.org/works/>> and www.twildersociety.org/education/bibliography/ <<http://www.twildersociety.org/education/bibliography/>>.

The Society encourages graduate students as well as established scholars to submit 500 word proposals and CVs to Park Bucker at psbucke@uscsumter.edu <<mailto:psbucke@uscsumter.edu>> by January 15, 2019.