Call for Papers:

The Carson McCullers Society is pleased to announce an open call for panel papers on any topic related to the life and works of Carson McCullers for one of two guaranteed panels at the American Literature Association (ALA) conference in San Diego, California, on May 21-24, 2020. Papers that approach McCullers' works from interdisciplinary, comparative, and disability or gender studies perspectives are especially sought; however, all topics will be considered. Interested parties should send a 250-300 word abstract and short bio to the CMS Society president and vice president, Isadora Wagner (isadora.wagner@westpoint.edu) and Sarah-Marie Horning (S.D.HORNING@tcu.edu), by January 12, 2019.
