

The Marilynne Robinson Society will be hosting a panel on a wide variety of topics connected to Robinson's essays and novels at the annual conference of the American Literature Association. Given the special conference theme of frontiers and borders, papers that attempt to engage with this theme are particularly welcome. Please submit abstracts of around 300 words to haein.park@biola.edu by January 15, 2020.