

The Cinema Television Literature Association – ALA 2020

The Cinema Television Literature Association welcomes proposals for a panel to be held at the 2020 ALA Conference in San Diego, May 21-24, 2020.

The panel “Film and Literary Texts” seeks four presentations on the use of American literary texts in feature films or long format episodic series or the use of film or long format episodic series in American literary works.

Proposals (for presentations no longer than twenty minutes) should include the title of the panel, the title of your presentation, your name and affiliation, and a 200-400 word abstract.

Send submissions for this panel to Christine Danelski at Christine.Danelski4@calstatela.edu by January 15, 2020
