

The Kate Chopin International Society is seeking individual proposals for two sponsored panels at the 2022 American Literature Association conference in Chicago, Illinois, May 26–29, 2022.

The first panel, a roundtable on “Teaching Kate Chopin,” seeks short (seven- to eight-minute) papers/remarks that address an aspect of or strategy for teaching Chopin’s life or work. Proposals should include a title, your name and affiliation, and a paragraph about your proposed remarks.

The second panel seeks proposals relating to any aspect of Chopin’s life or work. Proposals for presentations no longer than twenty minutes should include a title, your name and affiliation, and a 200- to 400-word abstract.

Send submissions for both the roundtable and the open session by Sunday, January 9, 2022, to both Heather Ostman (State University of New York: Westchester Community College) and Bernard Koloski (Mansfield University).
