

Call for Papers

The International Theodore Dreiser Society will sponsor two panels at the American Literature Association Conference in Chicago, Illinois on May 26-29, 2022.

Panel One: Dreiser and The Current Moment

- Papers are invited on how Dreiser's work resonates with readers and issues in higher education, the nation, and world today.

Panel Two: Open Topic

- Papers are invited on any aspect of the author's writing. Some examples: Dreiser in the Digital Age; Illness and Wellness in Dreiser's Naturalism

Presentations will be limited to 20 minutes. Panelists are not required to be members of the International Theodore Dreiser Society.

Please email an abstract (250-350 words) for either panel, as well as a brief CV to the program chair by January 15, 2022.

Cara Erdheim Kilgallen
Chair, Department of Languages and Literatures
W325, Martire Center
Sacred Heart University
Fairfield, CT. 06825
ErdheimC@Sacredheart.edu

Conference details may be found at the American Literature Association web site:
<https://americanliteratureassociation.org/ala-conferences/ala-annual-conference/>