Acknowledgements:

The Conference Director, along with the Executive Board of the ALA, wishes to thank all of the society representatives and panelists for their contributions to the conference. Special appreciation to those folks who kindly volunteered to chair sessions. Now more than ever, we see the value of coming together annually to share our work and to reconnect with colleagues and friends. Creating such an event is an extraordinary amount of work, but so worth it. This conference would not have been possible without the tireless and ongoing efforts of many people. Emily Pittman at Georgia Southern University worked miracles keeping track of registration and the many iterations of the program. Rene Trevino handles all of ALA's technology and social media needs with expertise and efficiency. I benefit from the advice and good counsel of many members of the ALA Executive Board, especially Kirk Curnutt, Deborah Clarke, Karen Kilcup, and James Nagel. I am most grateful, however, to Alfred Bendixen for his deft and fearless leadership of the ALA and especially for his expertise and good sense in leading us through the logistical challenges of retuning to an in-person conference, and to Olivia Carr Edenfield, whose grace, wisdom, and good humor are unmatched. I'm thankful for her guidance and support this year and always. I'm eternally grateful to my husband, Bo Graham, who supports me in the work I love and who solo-parents our twin girls when I am spending time with my ALA community.

ALA Land Acknowledgement:

The Palmer House Chicago Hilton, in which we have gathered to share our scholarly explorations of American literary culture, sits on the unceded traditional homelands of the Council of the Three Fires: the Ojibwe, Odawa, and Potawatomi Nations and on the site of one of the largest urban American Indian communities in the United States. Other tribes including the Fox, Ho-Chunk, Menominee, Miami and Sac have also called this area home or gathered here for trade, travel, and healing. We pay our respect to the Indigenous caretakers of these lands and waters who have lived here, who live here now, and who will live here in the future.

A Note on A/V Equipment:

The 2022 American Literature Association conference will provide a digital projector and screen for the sessions in Kimbal, Logan, Madison, Marshfield, and Salon 7. Individuals will need to provide their own laptops and are encouraged to provide their own cables or dongles to hook up with the projector, particularly if using a Mac or Ipad. There is no Zoom capability in any of the rooms. A technician will be available during the conference to answer any questions or help with set-up. It is no longer possible to add additional a/v equipment to the sessions.

A Note on Navigating the Third Floor of the Palmer House:

Most of our program takes place on the third floor of the Palmer House Hilton. A map of that floor is on the inside back cover of this program. Please note that the third floor encompasses two levels with approximately 10 steps between the two. Thus, to move from the Salon rooms to the other meeting rooms, an individual would either have to take the stairs or take one set of elevators up to the 6th floor, cross the sixth floor to the other elevator bank, and take that elevator down to the third floor.

Special Events:

Middle Passage (2022)

While the ALA is in Chicago, an adaptation of Charles Johnson's Middle Passage is being staged at the Lifeline Theatre (lifelinetheatre.com). Elizabeth Bishop and The Art of Losing*, a new film by John D. Scott

Organized by the Elizabeth Bishop Society

Moderator: Ben Leubner, Montana State University

A screening of John D. Scott's film Elizabeth Bishop and the Art of Losing, followed by a conversation with filmmaker Scott about the making of his important new cinematic biography.

ELIZABETH BISHOP AND THE ART OF LOSING

A FILM BY JOHN D. SCOTT

SCREENING SATURDAY MAY 28TH, 2022 AT 5:30 PM
CRYSTAL ROOM, PALMER HOUSE HILTON

So often throughout her life, Pulitzer Prize winning poet Elizabeth Bishop's trajectory is tragically disrupted by a profound personal loss that pushes her into her worst self-destructive habits. Yet, in her sixties, while grief-stricken, she courageously faces up to her most tragic heartbreak, writes her greatest work, becomes her truest self, and learns to master the art of losing. In doing so, she becomes one of America's greatest poets of the twentieth century.

The evocative beauty of Bishop's poetry is honored by the formal beauty of Scott's composition.

JOHN BRESLAND, TRIQUARTERLY JOURNAL,
NORTHWESTERN UNIVERSITY

Over 70 International Screening Events / 18 Online Features / 3 Theatrical Runs in Boston (before features at Coolidge Corner Cinema) for the four completed cinépoems integrated into the feature.

Festivals in: Athens, Berlin, London (ICA), Rome, New York City, Barcelona, Vancouver, Halifax.

BIO | JOHN D. SCOTT

Scott is a filmmaker, an Associate Professor and Director of the Documentary Studies and Production Degree at Ithaca College in New York. His films have won multiple awards and glowing reviews in national presses including the New York Times and The Globe and Mail. He has directed many short films that have played internationally in over twenty countries and one critically acclaimed feature-length documentary Scouts Are Cancelled purchased by The Documentary Channel (2008-11.) Scouts premiered at Hot Docs.

BIO | WALTER FORSYTH

Walter Forsyth produced the award winning dramatic feature, The Disappeared, two seasons of the digital series, Everyone's Famous, both nominated for two Canadian Screen Awards and the feature documentary, Cubers. He produced several award winning short films including How to Be Alone (8 million views on YouTube), Old St. Nick (TIFF Best of), The June Bug Symphony (Hot Docs) and Ingrid and the Black Hole (Best Short Edmonton FF). He won TIFF's 2011 Pitch This, received a 2012 Sundance Doc Fund, and currently works for Lunenburg Doc Fest.

NEW FROM NORTON

VISIT US IN THE EXHIBIT AREA!

THE NORTON ANTHOLOGY OF AMERICAN LITERATURE

Full and Shorter 10e • Available in print and ebook

Exceptional editorial apparatus, a generous and diverse slate of texts, and innovative resources to help instructors meet today's teaching challenges. New selections include a teaching cluster on Mary Rowlandson's captivity narrative, Civil War songs and stories, The Turn of the Screw, The Great Gatsby, poems by Claudia Rankine, and a science fiction cluster featuring Octavia Butler and N. K. Jemisin.

THE NORTON INTRODUCTION TO LITERATURE

Shorter 14e • Available in print and ebook

Help all students become close readers and confident writers with the trusted writing and reading guidance students need, along with an exciting mix of the stories, poems, and plays instructors want. The Fourteenth Edition is the most inclusive ever, with more contemporary and timely works to engage today's students.

InQuizitive

Available for The Norton Anthology of American Literature and The Norton Introduction to Literature, InQuizitive is Norton's auto-graded and easy-to-use learning tool that motivates students to dig into the reading with greater focus and confidence. With scaffolded activities that go beyond typical reading comprehension quizzes, InQuizitive strengthens textual analysis by engaging students in the application of close reading skills and literary terms.

NORTON CRITICAL EDITIONS

Trusted for in-depth study since 1961

Volumes follow a three-part format—annotated text, contexts, and criticism—to bring together everything students and instructors need. The Critical Edition series is the unparalleled standard for teaching classic texts.
