

The Kurt Vonnegut Society @ the ALA 2023
Westin Copley Place - Boston, MA
25-28 May 2023

The Kurt Vonnegut Society seeks presentations for the Society's guaranteed panels at the 2023 American Literature Association Conference. As we enter the second hundred years of Vonnegut studies, the horizons are quite open: any innovative approach to Vonnegut will receive high consideration. Some possible avenues of exploration might include:

- Vonnegut and the environment
- anti-war sentiment in the context of the present conflict(s)
- Vonnegut's relation to social justice
- Vonnegut adaptation
- reception studies of Vonnegut's works
- new approaches to teaching Vonnegut
- vantages on Vonnegut's under-studied works or genres
- any interesting take on the author or any of his works

Proposals should be between 200 and 400 words, and be accompanied with a brief CV or biographical statement, sent to the Society's e-mail address (vonnegutsociety@gmail.com) with the subject line "ALA 2023" by 7 January 2023.
