

Call for Papers: Stephen Crane Society, ALA 2023

The Stephen Crane Society will sponsor two sessions at the American Literature Association Conference at the Westin Copley Place in Boston on May 25-28, 2023.

All topics are welcome. Here, for example, are a few suggestions:

Crane's depiction of war

Crane and the arts (e. g., painting, photography, music)

Crane's depiction of the city

Crane's poetry

Crane's journalism

the Sullivan County tales and sketches

the Western stories

the Whilomville stories

one of Crane's lesser-known novels (The Third Violet, Active Service, or The O'Ruddy)

Crane's depiction of women

Crane's relationship with other writers, e. g., Garland, Howells, Conrad, or Frederic

Crane's influence on later writers

Presentations will be limited to 20 minutes.

You may also propose a roundtable discussion on, say, teaching Crane's short stories.

Please email abstracts or papers of no more than ten double-spaced pages by January 15, 2023, to the program chair:

Paul Sorrentino

psorrent@vt.edu

For more information about the conference, please consult the ALA website at www.americanliterature.org. If you have specific questions about ALA, contact the Conference Director, Professor Olivia Carr Edenfield, at carr@georgiasouthern.edu or the Executive Director of ALA, Professor Alfred Bendixen, at ab23@princeton.edu.