

The 16th Biennial Jack London Society Symposium

The 16th Biennial Jack London Society Symposium will be held October 5–8, 2023, at The Huntington Library, Art Museum, and Botanical Gardens in San Marino, California. The organizers encourage participants to experiment with innovative, alternative and established theoretical approaches to the life and work of Jack London. We welcome papers and panel submissions on any aspect of the author's life and work. In addition, proposals for roundtables or teaching presentations are encouraged, especially those that connect London with other writers and artists. Please email 200-word abstract proposals (noting any audio/visual requests) along with complete contact information and a short biography to Kenneth K. Brandt at kbrandt@scad.edu. Proposal deadline is August 15, 2023.

Activities will include library, museum, and garden tours at the Huntington. Attendees can also tour the famous Gamble House and walking tour of the Arroyo Terrace and Grand neighborhood. Information on Accommodations is forthcoming. Symposium attendees wishing to do research in the library must obtain reading privileges in advance by going online to www.huntington.org. Watch <https://jacklondonsociety.org/> for further information.