

~ Call for Papers ~

National Association of Hispanic and Latino Studies

National Conference
February 15-17, 2024
Thompson Conference Center
University of Texas at Austin
Austin, Texas

The National Association of Hispanic and Latino Studies will host its national conference in Austin, Texas February 15-17, 2024. In addition, not fewer than 400 research sessions, roundtables, panel discussions, performances and demonstrations will be scheduled throughout the week. In addition to the many scholarly sessions, the conference will also include many exhibitors, a career fair and health screenings.

Persons interested in presenting a paper, round table, etc. should submit an abstract, not to exceed two (2) pages that are related to Hispanic, Latino and Chicano experiences. Subjects may include, but are not limited to: immigration, voting rights, access to education, poverty, COVID, racial profiling, road to citizenship, literature, demographics, history, politics, economics, education, health care, fine arts, religion, social sciences, business and many other subjects.

Presentation times: Individual presentations – 25 minutes, with 5 minutes for Q&A; Panel presentations (3 or more panelists) – 45 minutes, with 15 minutes for Q&A.

Interested scholars should submit his/her abstract with presenter's name, institution/organization, address, phone and email no later than Saturday, November 11, 2023. Please forward abstracts to: Dr. Lemuel Berry, Jr., Executive Director, NAAAS & Affiliates, PO Box 545, Westbrook, ME 04098-0545, or by fax to 207-856-2800, or via email at naasconference@naas.org.