

The Emily Dickinson International Society (EDIS) seeks submissions for max. two panels for the ALA annual conference in Boston, May 2025

Submission Deadline: Jan. 6

36th Annual Conference of the American Literature Association

21–24 May 2025 at The Westin Copley, Boston, Mass.

USA <https://americanliteratureassociation.org/ala-conferences/ala-annual-conference/>

This open topic panel invites paper proposals on Emily Dickinson's work that engage with the new directions in Dickinson studies. Suggested topics include:

- environmental matters
- new materialism
- global communities
- legacy
- technology
- cultural memory
- identity (self/collective/imagined)
- frame (poems, letter, epigram, recipe)
- performance, audience, reception

Paper proposals (max. 300 words) should be submitted by Monday 6 January 2025, midnight (EST) to Dr. Nicole Panizza at nicolepanizza@gmail.com and Dr. Emily Seelbinder at seelbine@queens.edu. Please include a bio of no more than one paragraph/ c. 100 words. Subject line for proposals should read: Name | EDIS-American Literature Association, Boston 2025.